INTRODUCTION.

To the herewith Printed Papers, relating to Mr. Paterson's Claim, he Presumes to give the following brief Deduction of the Case.

A N ACT passed in Scotland, which constituted feveral Persons therein named, together with such as should joyn with them, in manner, and within the Space of Time therein mentioned, one Body incorporate, by the Name of the Company of Scotland trading to Africa and the Indies.

" By a Subsequent Clause of the same Act, there is special Power granted to the Persons named in the said Act by Subscriptions or otherwise, as they " should think fit, to raise a Joint-Stock, or Capital

"Fund, of such a Sum, or Sums of Mony, And "subject to such Rules, Conditions and Qualifications, as by them or the major Part of them, when assembled, should be limited or appointed, to begin, carry

" on, and support their intended Trade and Naviga-

"By a further Clause of the same Act, the Books, Records, and Registers of the said Company, or

"Authentick Abstracts, or Extracts, out of the same, are made and declared to be good and sufficient E"vidence in any Court of Law; granting likewise

"to the faid Company in general, all Powers, Rights and Privileges, that by the Laws are given to Com" panies, allowed to be erected, &c.

[ iv ]

The Members in the faid Act named, or the major part of them, met at London to confider of a Method to carry on the Trade; and at this Meeting they framed, and agreed to certain Rules, Orders and Conditions, bearing Date the fixth Day of November, 1695. which they entered in Books for that Purpose, at the Head of their own Subscriptions, as well as the Subscriptions of all others, who would be concerned in the Company's Joint-Stock, taking therein special Notice of the great Services which Mr. Paterson had done for establishing the Company: In consideration whereof, it was thereby specially agreed, in the following Words, viz.

Novemb. 6. 1695.

W No. I. In July 23.1708. out of the Company's Register-Books.

* " That in regard Mr. William Paterson, and othe Report of " thers concerned with him, have been at great Pains " and Expence, in making several considerable Discove-" ries of Trade and Improvements, in and to both the " Indies, and likewise in procuring needful Powers and " Privileges for a Company of Commerce from several "Sovereign Princes and States; and for which he and they have Contrived, Suited and Designed the said " Company. In Consideration whereof, it is hereby s agreed, that the faid William Pater son, his Execu-" tors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall, out of the first Payment, have and receive Two per Cent. of " the Mony to be Subscribed in the said Capital "Fund; As also, Three per Cent. of the Issues, Pro-" fits and Product of the said Fund, for the space of Twenty one Years; which shall be Redeemable " for Two per Cent. more of the said Capital Fund, " any time in five Years.

Whereto the faid Members, or the major part of them, present at that Meeting, and who constituted the Company, did subscribe; and several other Subscriptions were taken at London, amounting in the Soon whole to 300000 %.

Soon after this, the several Members in the Act named, or the major part of them, retired with the faid Books into Scotland, and there opened Books February 6. to take in further Subscriptions, in which there was a Subsequent Entry made, Referring to the Conditions, Rules and Orders abovementioned, in these Words: (a) "Pursuant to an Act of (a) No. 2. In " Parliament, entituled, An Act for a Company Tra- Said Report.

of ding to Africa and the Indies, we the Subscribers, do each of us for himself become obliged for the " Payment of the respective Sums, severally subscri-" bed by us; Subject to the Rules, Conditions and

" Constitutions of the Said Company; And accordingly feveral Subscriptions, amounting to the further

Sum of 400000 l. were entered there:

By the 15th Article of the Treaty of Union, the advanced Stock of the faid Company, with Interest at five per Cent. was to be paid out of the Equivalent : And to this purpose an Act passed in Scotland, ap- March 25. pointing certain Commissioners to state what was due to the faid Company for Principal and Interest.

But Mr. Paterson happening to be then absent out of Scotland, and the faid Commissioners being Strangers to the foresaid Transactions of the Company,

Mr. Paterson's Demand was omitted.

Upon this Mr. Paterson apply'd himself to the Parliament of Great Britain, who were pleas'd, in an Act past in the fixth Year of the Queen, Entituled, An Act for the further directing the Payment of the Equivalent Mony, to Insert the following Clause, viz.

ND whereas it appears, that the Accounts April 1st, of the Stock advanced, and Debts due by the

&quot; African and Indian Company in Scotland, have " been made up without Regard to the Claim of 66 William

William Paterson, Esq; for his Expences, Pains and Losses, on Account, and at the Instance of the faid Company; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Omission or Neglect of the Directors of the said Company, or of others concerned in Stating, Adjusting or Certifying the Claims or Demands upon the Equivalent, shall Prejudice the Right, Interest, Claim or Demand of the

(a) By the 15th Article of the Treaty of Union, the Principal Sums due to the Proprietors of the African and Indian Company in Scotland, together with the Inteterest at Five per Cent. per Annum, are Stipulated to be paid out of the Equivalent, preserable to all other Publick Debts of Scotland.

" faid William Paterson, in and up" on the said Company, but that " the several Sums due to him by " the said Company shall be Cer" tisied, and thereupon fully Satis" fied, and Paid in the Terms of " the Treaty of Union, (a) as the " same shall be Proved before the " aforesaid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland. " And in regard that fince the making of the of first Contracts and Agreements, the said Wil-" liam Paterson hath been at further Expences, " and fustained other Losses and Damages, for 66 and on Account of the faid Company; Be it st therefore further Enacted, That the said Judges " of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland shall and are hereby required to take an Account of those " his Expences and Losses, and likewise of his good se Services and publick Cares, and make a full and s fair Representation thereof to Her Majesty. "And to the End that the more full and free Enouiries may be made, and Information had of the " Premisses, the said Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland shall and may, from time to time, 46 Direct their Commission or Commissions to any 66 Commissioner or Commissioners within this King. es dom of Great Britain, or Dominions and Territond lerrito-

ries thereunto belonging, for taking the requisite Examinations or Informations to the Purposes aforesaid, and for reporting the same to the said

" Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

After passing the above-mentioned Act of Parliament, Mr. Paterson did make his Application to the Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, who were thereupon pleas'd to Direct Mr. Roderick Machenzie, the Company's Secretary, to lay the Facts relating to Mr. Paterson's Claim before the Court.

Whereupon the before-mention'd Extract, marked No. 1. in the Report out of the Register Books of the said Company, was, on the 23d of July 1708, laid before the Judges of the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh, and Sworn unto by the said Mr. Roderick Mackenzie.

And it further appears by the said Report and Extracts, That pursuant to the said Conditions, the Sum of 600000 l. Sterling was soon after Subscribed to the Capital Stock of the said Company, and one fourth Part thereof actually Paid to their Order and Use, by which the said Præmium of Two per Cent. amounting to 12000 l. became due to Mr. Paterson.

That by Mr. Paterson's Accompt Current with the said Company, as Extracted out of their Books of Accompts, and likewise upon Oath laid before the said Judges of the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh, by James Dunlop and John Symmer, the said Company's Accomptants, the 5th Day of August 1708, it August 52 doth appear that Mr. Paterson hath not received the 1708. Said Two per Cent. Præmium, amounting to 12000 l. but that only the Sum of 435 l. 155. 13d. remains in his Hands, being the Ballance of divers Sums of Mony, received by him from the said Company, amounting to 25526 l. 85. 53d. all which, except the said Ballance, had been issued out, paid and allowed for the

the Use of the said Company, and for which he had Credit given him, as by the said Accompt Current appears; so that the Sum of 11564 l. 4s. 103d. Remainder of said Præmium, with the Interest of Five per Cent. per Annum, allow'd by the Treaty of Union from the said 6th Day of November 1695, appears to be still due to Mr. Paterson.

Mr. Paterson further claims Satisfaction for his subsequent Pains, Expences and Losses, on that Company's Account, from Christmas 1695, the time when himself and many of his Friends had the heavy Missortune to fall under the Displeasure of Parliament, even to an Impeachment for the Sake and Service of this Company, as appears by the Journals of the House of Commons of the 21st of January, in the same Year, to which Journal he particularly refers for Corroberation of these and other Proofs relating to his Claim.

Besides several particular Expences and Losses, hard to be proved at such Distance of Times and Place, and for which nevertheless there ought in Justice Allowance to be made, the Petitioner cannot value this last Expence and Loss, at less than 1500 l. per Annum, for the space of Sixteen Years last past, or 24000 l. in the whole, as by the Estimate or Scheme thereof herewith Printed appears.

The abovementioned Report of July 23, 1708, delivered in with the following Extracts out of the Company's Books is not herewith Printed, as being upon the matter the very fame thing with the following Depositions and Examinations of the said Mr. Mackenzie in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland since taken.

London 21st. Febr. 1711-12.

DEPOSITIONS of Witnesses taken before John Hall, Gent. Examiner in her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh, in a Cause depending there, wherein William Paterson, Esq; is Plaintiss against David Earl of Glascow, Lord Clerk Register, Sir David Dalrymple of Hales, her Majesty's Lord Advocate General, Sir Andrew Home, Mr. William Dalrymple, Sir Robert Sinclair, Sir Tho. Burnet, Sir John Erskine, Sir John Swinton, Sir James Campbell, Sir James Smollet, Sir Patrick Johnston, John Bruce, William Seaton, Alexander Abercrombie, Mr. John Pringle, Sir John Cope, and John Bridges, Commissioners appointed by her Majesty for distributing the Equivalent Mony, are Defendants. Examined on the part and behalf of the Complainant William Paterson, Esq;

R Oderick Mackenzie, late Secretary to the Company of Scotland Trading to Africa and the Indies, Aged upwards of forty five Years, being a Witness produced, Sworn and Examined the thirtieth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ten, and in the ninth Year of the Reign of her present Majesty Queen Ann, Deposeth as followeth.

Imprimis, To the first Interrogatory this Deponent saith, Thathe this Deponent doth know the Complainant William Paterson, and all and every one of the Defendants above particularly mentioned, some of them ten, some of them twelve, and some sisteen Years ago and upwards, except Sir John Cope, and John Bridges, Esq; whom he this Deponent had occasion to know transiently, only since the Union of both Kingdoms.

To the fecond Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That in or about the Month of June, 1695 Years, Sir David Nairn (one of the Patentees or Nominees in the Act of Parliament, or Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Scotland, by which the late Company of Scotland Trading to Africa and the Indies was Established) was the first Man who told him at Old Man's Coffee-house near Charing-Cross, of the design of Establishing the then intended Company; telling this Deponent at the same time, that they expected by every succeeding Post from Scotland. an account of the faid Act's being past in Parliament, and obtaining the Royal Sanction; that the faid Sir David Nairn (then defigned David Nairn, Esq;) was defired by the Gentlemen principally concerned in carrying on the faid Defign, to look out for a proper Person to serve them in the Quality of Secretary; that he thought it might be both a very creditable and beneficial Employment, and therefore proposed to him this Deponent as his Friend; that if he this Deponent thought well thereof, he the faid Sir David Nairn would instantly go along with him into the City of London, to wait upon the other Gentlemen, particularly the Complainant, who (as the faid Sir David Nairn then informed this Deponent) was the chief Projector of this Defign, and was principally relyed on as to his Advice in most matters of Consequence relating thereunto; where they, the said Sir David Nairn and this Deponent, went accordingly, and that after having conferred twice or thrice with the Complainant, and the other Patentees or Nominees then living in London, they engaged him this Deponent conditionally to serve the said then intended Company in the Quality of Secretary, provided the other Nominees, Residenters in Scotland, or the Majority of the whole Nominees, when met, should approve thereof. And this Deponent faith, that in the mean time, by Direction of such of the said Nominees as were then at London, he this Deponent entered immediately upon keeping a regular Correspondence with those of them who were residing in Scorland: land: That at a Meeting of the Majority of the said Nominces at London in or about one or other of the Months of October or November, 1695 Years, they the said Nominees of London approved and confirmed him, this Deponent, as chosen Secretary, and they did meet and act there as the Majority of the then constituent Members of the said Company. And this Deponent surther saith, that he was sole Secretary to the said Company both in England and Scotland from the time of the first Institution thereof, which was in the said Year of our Lord 1695, 'till the time of its Dissolution by the Union of both Kingdoms, in the Year 1707.

To the third Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That from the first time of his being chosen Secretary to the said Company, to the Dissolution of the said Company by the Union, he this Deponent always understood, and doth still believe the Complainant William Pater son, Esq; to have been the chief and sole Framer and Projector of the principal Designs of the said Company; and of the first Draught of the Act of Parliament by which it was Established; for that as the same was generally acquiesced to, or acknowledged by all the Constituent Members of the faid Company, during the Existence thereof, so that three of the said Nominees, viz. Thomas Deans, Thomas Coutts, and James Cheisley, came to Edinburgh from London, in Prosecution of the said Projection framed as aforesaid, to sollicite the Passing of the said Act in the faid Year 1697. And some others likewise of the Nominees Residenters in Scotland, did by several Letters bearing Dates at Edinburgh in the Months of June and July in the same Year above just before-mentioned (which this Deponent then read and took Copies of) inform their Correspondents at London, and particularly the Complainant, that the Draught of the faid Act fent by him the faid Complainant was followed, and kept as close as possible, with the addition only of a Narrative, and some few other Clauses adjected by the then King's Advocate, Sir James Stewart, whom they had consulted touching the same.

To the fourth Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That in or about the fixth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1695 Years, and at feveral other times in the faid Year, the Majority of the faid Patentees, or Nominees in the faid Act of Parliament, and Letters Patent, did meet as a Company at the House of Nathaniel Carpenter in Clements Lane in London, for several and sundry purposes, the more especially for taking Subscriptions to the then proposed Capital-Fund, or Joint-Stock of the said Company, being the Sum of fix hundred thousand Pounds Sterling Mony: That three of the ten Nominees, or Patentees, who were Residenters in Scotland, viz. the Lord Belbaven, Mr. Robert Blackwood, and James Balfour, did by special Deputation from the other Nominees then Residenters in Scotland, go expresly to London to make a Majority with the other ten Patentees or Nominees residing there, where the faid Majority met accordingly as aforefaid; that before any Subscriptions were taken to the faid Joint-Stock, the faid Company confifted only of twenty Nominees or Patentees particularly defigned in the faid Act of Parliament and Letters Patent, viz. John Lord Belhaven, Adam Cockburn of Ormistoun, (then Lord Justice Clerk) Mr. Francis Montgomerie of Giffen, Sir John Maxwell of Pollock, Sir Robert Cheisley (then Lord Provost of Edinburgh) John (now Sir John) Swinton of that Ilk, Geo. Clerk (then late Bailie of Edinburgh,) Mr. Robert Blackwood and fames Balfour, Merchants in Edinburgh, John Corfe Merchant in Glascow, William Paterson, (the Complainant) James Foulis, David Nairn, and Tho. Deans, Esqrs, James (heisley, James Smith, Tho. Coutts, Hugh Frazier, Joseph Cohen, D' Azevedo, and Walter Stewart, Merchants in London, and of none other; that the faid Patentees or Nominees frequently declared both jointly and feverally to this Deponent's hearing, that they thought themselves, or the Major part of them sufficiently warranted to meet and act as a Company to all intents and purposes, 'till others could be regularly joined to, or assumed by them, and that not only by vertue of a special Clause in the said Act of Parliament, and Letters Patent, viz. With Power to the faid Company by Subscription or otherwise, as they shall think fit, to raise a Joint-Stock; as particularly mentioned in the Extract No. 8. to which the Deponent refers, but likewise as being most consonant and agreeable to the common Practice of the generality of all other newly Established Societies of Trade in all the Countries of Europe, particularly pointed at also in the last general Clause of the said Act of Parliament, and Letters Patent, to which this Deponent doth likewise particularly refer. And for the further Verification thereof, this Deponent hath at the time of this his Examination, Exhibited and given in Authentick Copies of the faid Act of Parliament, No. 8. and Letters Patent, No. 9. the Act being Signed and solemnly Sworn unto by two of the then Clerks of the Parliament of Scotland, and the Letters Patent by the Clerk of the Chancery, and the Lord Chancellor's Deputy Keeper of the Great Seal there for the time, in Presence of his late Majesty's High Commissioner, and the Lords of the Privy-Council, and attested by the Sign Manual of the Earl of Merchmont, then Lord High Chancellor of Scotland, and by the Signet of the Privy-Council; and this Deponent faith.

faith, that at all and fundry the Meetings of the Majority of the faid Nominees at London as a Company, he this Deponent did meet with and serve them in the Quality of Secretary; that there was an Induction or Preamble framed and prepared by the Majority of the faid Patentees or Nominees met as aforeiaid, to be fet at the Head of the then intended Sub-criptions, and that the Paper, Writing, or Extract under this Deponent's Hand, produced and shown to him at the time of this his Examination, marked No. 1. is a true Copy of the faid Induction or Preamble, that it was prefixed and fet at the Head of all the Subscriptions then taken at London, amounting in the whole to the Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds Sterling Mony; that the said Preamble or Induction was prefixed to the faid Subscriptions, for no other intent, that this Deponent ever knew or believed, but only to subject all the Subscribers or Adventurers in the Joint-stock of the said Company to the Rules, Conditions and Agreements mentioned in the aforesaid Induction; and that the same was publickly read, and unanimously agreed to, first by all the Nominees met as aforesaid at London, and then read, or at least laid open to the publick and common View and Inspection of all such Person and Persons as by subscribing the same became Members of the faid Company, or Partners of their faid Jointstock. This Deponent faith, that all the Subscriptions taken in England were at the House of the said Nathaniel Carpenter, in the fourth Deposition named, and that the Persons who commonly attended at the taking the faid Subscriptions, were some or other of the aforesaid Patentees or Nominees, together with this Deponent, who faith that he then attended constantly, and that he took the said Paper, Writing, or Extract (marked No. 1.) of the Original Book of English Subscriptions now by him, produced and compared Verbatim therewith at the time of this his Examination.

To the Fifth Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That he has frequently heard, and does verily believe, that for feveral Years before the Revolution, the Complainant went in Person to the West-Indies; and that upon his Return to Europe, he the faid Complainant had framed a Scheme of Trade, different from the Methods and Constitutions of any of the then trading Companies of England, to have been carryed on under the Umbrage and Sanction of some European Potentate or other, who might give them greater Privileges and Immunities than were confiftent with the Laws of England then in force: That in purfuance of that Resolution, he the said Complainant (with the Assistance of some others concern'd with him) did obtain several Octroys or

Charters

Charters from the Elector of Brandenburgh (now King of Prussa) the Cities of Embden and Bremen, with very large Privileges and Immunities, for carrying on the Complainant's aforesaid Design; and that he this Deponent did see the said Octroys or Charters, together with the Translations thereof. That in the Year of our Lord One thousand fix hundred ninety and three, an Act of Parliament having pass'd in Scotland, entituled, An Act for encouraging of Foreign Trade; the same was conceived in such Terms, as gave no effectual Encouragement to any Person or Persons to enter into Societies, for carrying on a Trade to the East or West-Indies, or Coast of Affrica (as feems to have been intended by the general Word of the said Act.) Nothing followed thereupon till in the Year of our Lord 1697. The Complainant, after his having been some few Years in England, and raised his own Character, by the Hand he had (as this Deponent saith he always heard, and doth believe) in projecting the Bank of England, the Orphan's Fund, and other Schemes about the publick Credit; several Merchants and others of his Country-men (he being a Native of Scotland) did apply to him for his Advice and Opinion, touching the Establishment of a Company or Companies for carrying on a Trade to the East or West-Indies, or the Coast of Affrica, directly from Scotland; he the Complainant, upon Assurances given him, (as this Deponent hath heard it faid, and doth believe), That the Parliament of Scotland would readily condescend to any encouraging Privileges and Immunities necessary for such a Design, was prevail'd upon to frame a Draught of the foresaid Act of Parliament for that purpose, and upon passing of the said Act in Parliament, to appropriate to the said Company's Use all the new Discoveries in Trade and Navigation, which he had made in the space of about nine or ten Years before the Commencement of the said A&; as also several curious Manuscripts, Journals, Maps, Books, and other Papers of Commerce relating thereto, which he afterwards (in this Deponent's Presence) deliver'd to the Directors of the said Company, and were by them fent on Board the faid Company's Ship the St. Andrew to Davien, to be as a standing Library for the Use of the then intended Council and Government of their Colony there. But as to what Expence and Disbursements the Complainant might have been at in and about the Premisses, this Complainant saith he can give no particular Account thereof, though this Deponent doth verily believe, that the same must have been very considerable, but what Particular or Particulars this Deponent cannot possibly declare or set forth, besides the loss of his time. time, and neglect of his other Affairs in England, particularly that Affair of the Orphan's Fund, which seem'd then to this Deponent to have been of great Moment to him the said Complainant, when he first engaged himself in the Affairs of the said Company.

To the Sixth Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That he cannot be special as to all the particular Subscriptions that the Complainant did by his own Industry, Reputation and Interest (Exclusive of all others) procure and obtain to the Joint-stock of the said Company; but that in the space of nine Days time, from the fixth of November, One thousand fix hundred ninty and five Years (upon which Day the Book of Subscriptions was first opened in London) the compleat and full Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds Sterling Mony (as the one half of the then intended Joint-stock) was subscribed by several Persons Residenters in London, chiefly (as this Deponent doth believe) by the Interest, Reputation, and Procurement of the Complainant, with the Affistance of some few other Persons then concerned with him, without any publick Print, or written Advertisement whatfoever for that End. And that every Subscriber, at the respective times of his, her, or their Subscriptions, did severally Pay in the first fourth Part of all the Sums fo subscribed, either in Gold, Silver, Bank Notes, or Notes payable upon Demand.

To the Seventh Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That at the time of fuch Subscriptions, the Complainant had then a Dwelling House in the Parith of St. Giles in the Fields, and had at that time very confiderable Business in London growing upon him Daily; but that upon the then House of Commons having impeached him the Complainant, and several other Persons for alledged High Crimes and Misdemeanours, in carrying on the Designs of the said Company, and particularly for raifing the Sums subscribed for, and payed in as aforesaid, he the said Complainant was prevailed upon by the Per-Iwasion of the said Lord Belhaven, Mr. Robert Blackwood and James Balfour, deputed from Scotland as aforefaid, and by that also of the other Nominees in general, to repair to and make the best of his way for Scotland; and the abovenamed deputed three Nominees, did in the Presence of this Deponent then declare, and give repeated Assurances to him the said Complainant, that he should be heartily welcome upon his Arrival there, and as far as they had any Interest or Power in Scotland, he would not have Occasion to repent for his so doing; and to this Deponent's Knowledge, the Complainant did accordingly come to Scotland, leaving his Family and Business in England, to the fate of whatever should happen thereupon.

To the Eighth Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That he did refide in England for the space of near eleven Years, before the time of taking the aforesaid Subscriptions at London, in November 1695 Years, and continue there till the fourteenth Day of the then succeeding April in 1696 Years, on which Day this Deponent faith, that at the defire and by advice of several of the aforesaid Nominees, and others concerned in the faid Company's Joint-stock, he took Post for Scotland; that he arrived at Edinburgh (to the best of his Memory) on the fixteenth Day of the same Month of April aforesaid; that he still continued to serve the said Company in the Quality of Secretary, while it continued to be a Company; that at the time of this Deponent's Arrival in Scotland, the Book of the aforesaid English Subscriptions was in the Custody of Mr. Robert Blackwood, one of the aforefaid ten Nominees Residenters in Scotland, till the keeping thereof was again committed to this Deponent's Charge by Order of the faid Company; and this Deponent faith, that those English Subscriptions were then esteemed as a Part of the said Company's Joint-stock, and that the same appears to him this Deponent to be undeniable for many Reasons, which may be given if needful, and particularly, First, Because though by the Constitutions of the said Company the Government and Management thereof was appointed to be in and by a Court of Fifty Directors to have been chosen by Scrole and Scrutiny; yet when the Subscribers in Scotland proceeded to nominate and chuse the Directors, they chose only twenty five Directors, to represent that part of the Company's Joint-stock, which was then subscribed in Scotland, and referved the chusing the other twenty five Directors, for representing the other half of the then Joint-stock which was subscribed in England. Secondly, Because several of the Subscribers at London. viz. the Complainant William Paterson, James Campbell, Fames Smyth, and Daniel Lodge, meerly by Vertue of their Subscriptions in England, were (long after this Deponent's Arrival in Scotland) De Facto admitted to meet, sit, vote, and act with the Court of Directors of the faid Company at Edinburgh, as Directors of the faid Company in all Matters and Things whatfoever relating to the Subscriptions taken in Scotland, as well as those taken in England. Thirdly, Because the Court of Directors of the said Company did, after this Deponent's Arrival in Scotland as aforesaid, so far esteem and consider the abovementioned English Subscriptions as a part of the said Company's Joint-flock, that upon the 23d of June 1696 Years, they gave particular Instructions with a Commission to two of their own Number.

Number, viz. the faid James Campbell and James Smyth, to negotiate at London all Matters relating to the faid English Subscriptions, and did on the oth Day of July in the Year 1696, cause Print and publish an Act, and Advertisement, containing Certification to such as should not Pay the first fourth Part of their respective Subscriptions before the 10th Day of August, then next immediately following, which though conceived in general Terms to all Subscribers whatfoever of the Company's Joint-stock indefinitely, for avoiding any just Cause or Pretence for Offence (as this Deponent saith, he doth pofitively know) was indeed more immediately calculated for the Subscribers in England, to whom printed Copies thereof were purposely transmitted, and (as this Deponent saith he doth believe) delivered accordingly by the faid Mr. fames Campbell and James Smyth. Fourthly, Because that in pursuance of the faid Court of Directors, their above in-part-recited Act and Advertisement, bearing date the oth Day of July 1696 Years, and approved of by an Act of the Council-General of the faid Company, bearing date the third Day of the then following August, in the said Year 1696; the said Court of Directors did by their further Act of the twentieth Day of the same Month of August in the said Year 1696, vest in themselves, for the Use of the faid Company, the Sum of two hundred eighty five thousand Pounds Sterling Mony of the aforesaid English Subscriptions, as having been then lately relinquished by the Subscribers thereof, after Publication of the aforesaid Advertisement. Fiftbly, Because that when upon several encouraging Invitations from Amsterdam, Hamburgh, and other Parts beyond Sea, the Complainant William Paterson, and other Deputees commissioned by the Company, went thither with Power to admit Foreigners, as Sharers in the faid Company's Joint-stock; the Council-General, and Court of Directors of the said Company, did so far resolve not to disjoin the aforesaid English Subscriptions from being a Part of the Company's Joint-stock, that they would not admit any new Subscriptions to have been taken beyond Sea, instead of the abovementioned English Subscriptions, but invested the same in Manner aforesaid, and in pursuance of the Power granted by the aforesaid Acts of the ninth of July; the third, and twentieth Days of August, in the said Year of our Lord 1696, The said Court of Directors did by their subsequent Act, and Commission of the fixteenth Day of September, in the faid Year 1696, Authorize the Complainant, and certain other Deputees therein named, to affign and transfer two hundred thousand Pounds Sterling Mony of the aforesaid Englib glish Subscriptions then relinquished, and vested in manner aforesaid, unto such Foreign Merchants, Bodies Politick or Corporate, as they the said Deputies could agree with, touching the same.

To the ninth Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That for the conveniency of fuch as had then a mind to be Subscribers, there were two Books opened in Scotland in or about the 26th Day of February, 1696, for the purposes of taking other additional Subscriptions in Scotland, to the amount of three hundred Pounds Sterling more, for compleating the first intended Capital-Stock of fix hundred thousand Pounds Sterling abovementioned; which being compleated accordingly, and the aforesaid Nominees or Patentees, together with such other Adventurers as were then joined with them, finding that many other Residenters in Scotland, who had not then as yet Subscribed, were willing to become Partners of the faid Joint-Stock of the faid Company, and finding also that by the aforesaid Act of Parliament and Letters Patent, they had a Discretionary Power to Augment, Restrict, or Diminish the Quota of their Capital-Stock, to any Sum that they should think fit, they resolved to continue their Books open 'till the further Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds Sterling more should be Subscribed in Scotland, so as the same should happen before or upon the first Day of the then next and immediate succeeding Month of August, 1696. And this Deponent saith, that Subscriptions for the Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds Sterling more were likewife compleated in that time aforefaid; and this Deponent faith, that there was a short Induction or Preamble set at the head of all the aforefaid Subscriptions taken in Scotland, and that the Paper, Writing, or Extract, under this Deponent's Hand, and now produced and shewn to him at the time of this his Examination, (marked No. 2.) is a true Copy of the faid Induction or Preamble, and that he took the fame off and compared it with the Original (as this Deponent faith he believeth) in the Custody of James Dunlop, chief Accomptant to the faid Company, living in Edinburgh: That whether this last Induction or Preamble was by the Framers thereof understood, and then intended to refer to the other Preamble or Induction to English Subscriptions aforesaid, and to be subject to the same Conditions and Constitutions as were set down therein, this Deponent cannot be positive, because he was not then arrived in Scotland; but saith, that according to his humble Apprehension of the natural Import of the general Words in which the faid last Induction or Preamble, (marked No. 2.) is conceived, it may feem to have had then probably referred to the Conditions ditions and Constitutions contained and set down in the aforesaid other Preamble or Induction to the English Subscriptions, and that not only for the feveral Reasons specially mentioned in this Deponent's Answer to the aforesaid Burlish Interrogatory, to which this Deponent doth now particularly refer; but likewise, because at the time of framing the faid last Preamble or Induction to the Subscriptions taken in Scotland, (marked No. 2.) there were no other standing Rules, Conditions, or Constitutions whatsoever extant and agreed upon by the faid Company, excepting only thefe, fet down, and contained in the aforesaid first Preamble or Induction, (marked No. 1.) And this Deponent further faith, that the several Papers, Writings, or Extracts under his Hand now produced, and shewn to him at the time of this his Examination, (marked No. 3, 4, 5.) are true Copies taken by him this Deponent off the faid Company's Books of Records, now by him produced and compared Verbatim therewith at the time of this his Examination; and this Deponent faith further, that the faid Records, from whence these Extracts were made, have always been and still are in his this Deponent's possession and keeping.

To the tenth Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That it was notoriously known to an indefinite number of People both in England, Scotland, and elsewhere, as well as to him this Deponent, that as no Trading Company in Europe was ever Established with greater Privileges and Immunities than the aforesaid Company, so it was scarcely possible for them to have had in so short a time a more promising view of Success than the said Company had about the latter end of the Year 1695, until the Parliament of England thought fit to interpose their Authority for obstructing and crushing the said Company's Designs in the Infancy thereof; which indeed seemed then to strike a great Damp on the Spirits of the generality of the aforesaid Nominees, and fuch other Persons as were then principally concerned. That in some few Months time thereafter, the said Company's Affairs begun again to have a very prosperous view, when Subscriptions were carried on in Scotland, with almost incredible Success, chiefly (as this Deponent faith he frequently heard it faid) by reason of the great Opinion that the generality of the Adventurers had then conceived of the Complainant's Capacity and Qualifications for directing and carrying on Enterprizes of that Nature, infomuch that the most considerable part of the Nobility, Gentry, and whole Body of the Royal Barons in Scotland became to be jointly concerned in the Stock

Stock of the faid Company. That upon feveral encouraging Invitations from Holland, Hamburgh, and other places beyond Sea, the Court of Directors of the said Company did, in or about the Months of September or October, 1696, send the Complainant William Paterson, together with three more of their own Number, as the faid Company's Deputies, and Representatives, or Commissioners, to the aforesaid places beyond Sea, for admitting Foreigners into certain Shares of the faid Company's Joint-Stock, and particularly for Transferring unto Foreign Merchants, Bodies Politick or others, any Sum or Sums not exceeding two hundred thousand Pounds Sterling of the above-mentioned English Subscriptions, then vested in the Court of Directors, with Power likewise to the said Deputees to receive for the said Company's use the first fourth part of such Sum or Sums as should happen to be Transferred in manner aforesaid; that the Complainant went to the above-named Places accordingly, and did, jointly with the faid Company's other Deputees, enter into Contracts and Agreements with feveral considerable Merchants, and other Citizens of Amsterdam and Hamburgh, for Transferring the aforesaid two hundred thousand Pounds Sterling of the said Company's Stock invested as aforesaid; but that those Contracts and Agreements were (as the said Deputees had, upon their return to Scotland, reported to their Constituents) rendered ineffectual by Acts of Violence, and threatning the Inhabitants of the aforefaid Cities from fulfilling their faid Engagements, and particularly by reason of three several threatning Memorials given to the Senate of the City of Hamburgh jointly, by Sir Paul Rycant, his late Britannick Majesty's Resident in that City, and Mr. Crosset his said Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at the Courts of Lunenburgh, in or about the Months of March or April, 1697, expresly declaring, that the then King their Master had ordered to notifie to the said Senate, that the said Company's Commissioners had neither Credential Letters, nor were any otherwise Authorised by his Majesty. And this Deponent faith, that the Paper, Writing, or Extract under his Hand, (marked No. 6.) now produced, and shewn to him at the time of this his Examination, is a true Copy of the Record of which it was taken, as the same produced now likewise, and compared therewith Verbatim, doth testifie: And saith further, that (besides the twenty Shillings Sterling per Diem allow'd to the Complainant for Travelling Charges, as the like Sum was also allowed to each of the Deputees aforesaid) this Deponent knoweth of no Reward given or proposed to have been given to him the faid Complainant, before, at, or after the

the time of his going then beyond Sea on the aforesaid account, ex-Cepting what is particularly mentioned in the Paper, Writing, or Extract under this Deponent's Hand, (marked No. 7.) now produced, and shewn to him at the time of this his Examination. And faith also, that the said Extract, (marked No. 7.) is a true Copy of the Record thereof, now produced likewise, and Verbatim compared therewith; and this Deponent faith further, that he cannot tell whether the Complainant confented to, or approved of the faid Act or Refolution of the then Court of Directors of the said Company, (marked No. 7.) as aforefaid, because that when the said Complainant came into the Director's Room, and had his Name fet down of course in the Minutes of the Court as a Director, he was ordered to withdraw and wait at Maclurg's Coffee-house 'till he'd be sent for, because (as they then faid) they had fomething to be moved in Court that concerned him in particular: That he the Complainant was not fent for 'till the said Court was up, because the said Directors did not seem to be unanimous about the latter part of the faid Refolution, but refered it to some of their Number to acquaint him of it; that neither the Complainant, nor any other Person whatsoever, was at the pains to take out an Extract or Authentick Copy of the faid Resolution, 'till this Deponent was, by order of the Barons of her Majesty's Exchequer in Scotland, ordered to Exhibit Extracts thereof, and of the other Papers above-mentioned, in the Year 1708, touching the Complainant's Claim: That neither the Complainant, nor any other Person for him, did ever move to have had the faid Act or Resolution of the said Court of Directors confirmed or approved of by the then Council General of the faid Company: That the faid Resolution had its first Rise (as this Deponent saith he believeth) from some Proposals made by the Committee of Foreign Trade of the faid Company, touching the manner of Gratifying the Complainant for his Merit, Expences, and Trouble, in promoting and carrying on the Interest and Defigns of the faid Company; and that some of the then Directors, particularly Sir Hew Dalrymple, President of the Session, and Wildiam Hay of Drummellzier, did publickly declare, that tho' they thought the Complainant merited very much at the Company's Hand, yet they would repine less at his having twenty, thirty, s or almost fifty per Cent. out of the Profits, than any thing at all out of the Original Capital Stock of the faid Company.

To the eleventh Interrogatory this Deponent faith, That the Complainant did in the Year 1698 go from Leith, and proceed in the faid Company's Service on their first Expedition to Darien, and that he was fent thither by the Directors of the faid Company in general, but more immediately by the particular Committee of the faid Directors who were absolutely impowered to give such sailing Orders and Instructions, as they thought fit, to all who went upon that Expedition: That by the generality of all the Accounts (that this Deponent ever heard) from such Persons as were in Darien, and returned from thence, he the faid Complainant (while he was there) did beheave Large better than all the other Councellors of that Colony. And this Deponent faith further, that he saw and read a Certificate under the hand of Captain Vetch, one of the late Conucellors of the faid Colony, by which it appeared, that the faid Complainant had fupplyed the faid Colony with Lime-Juice, Tobacco, Sugar, Rosin, and some other small things, upon his own private Credit out of a Sloop's Cargo, that was configned to him from Jamaica, as this Deponent was informed. And this Deponent faith further, that after the Complainant had returned from Darien to Scotland, he gave in to the then Court of Directors of the faid Company, a particular Journal or Report of all the most remarkable Negotiations and Transactions that he was any way concerned in, for or on behalf of the faid Company, together with his Observations upon the behaviour of others also, both in their outward and homeward Voyage, as well as while they stayed at Darien. And this Deponent saith further, that upon divers and fundry occasions both publick and private, he heard the Complainant declare with concern, that he thought himself in Honour engaged to use his utmost Endeavour, and study while he lived to project and contrive Means, by which all the Mony advanced by the Adventurers of the faid Company might be recovered and repay'd to them with Interest. And this Deponent further saith, that he has ground to believe, that the faid Adventurers, their having been Paid all their advanced Stock with Interest at the rate of five per Cent. per Ann. from the respective times of Payment, in pursuance of the fifteenth Article of the Treaty of Union, was really and truly the effect of the Complainant's Contrivance, Industry, and Care, more than that of any other fingle Person whatsoever.

To the twelfth Interrogatory this Deponent Taith, that as to the Complainant's Labour, Contrivance, Pains, Expences, Industry, Sufferings and Losses in and about his Negotiations, in projecting and carrying carrying on the Defigns of the faid Company, this Deponent can fav little more than what he has already declared in his faid feveral Anfwers to the above in part recited Interrogatories; to all and fundry which Answers, he doth hereby respectively refer. But as to what may concern the Complainant's Labour, Contrivance, Pains, Expences, Industry, Sufferings or Losses, in and about his Negotiations in serving the Government, with respect to the publick Credit, and late Union of both Nations, this Deponent faith he cannot be particular, otherwife than that he always heard and understood, not only by the Complainant's own Information, but likewise by the almost universal consent and indisputed Acquiescence of an indefinite Number of People of all Ranks and Degrees in London and elfewhere, (and doth believe) that the faid Complainant was the first Contriver of the Bank of England; that he has for a course of several Years past been subfervient to several of the Ministry, and more particularly to the late Lord Treasurer of Great Britain, in Projecting Funds and Schemes of Acts of Parliament for Supporting the Publick Credit, and for improving several Branches of the Publick Revenues. That he had a great share in contriving Schemes of many of the most considerable Articles of the late Treaty of Union, particularly in the Matters relating to the Designs and Applications of the Equivalent Mony, the Dissolution and Payment of the advanced Stock of the late Indian and African Company of Scotland, and generally all fuch Articles as had most immediate relation to the Trade, and the Publick Revevenues; that he was present, and in a subservient Degree (as this Deponent was inform'd, and doth believe) very useful, and affifting in bringing the faid Treaty to a Conclusion. That about the time of Signing the faid Treaty, feveral of the Commissioners of both Nations (as this Deponent was credibly informed, and doth believe) had fignifyed their Inclinations for having the Complainant undertake a Journey from London to Scotland, in order to his giving further assistance in compleating the said then intended Union, and had for that end severally addressed the then Lord Treasurer on the Complainant's behalf, for giving him the needful Encouragement and Support. That the Complainant came accordingly to Scotland in the Year 1706, where he remained and gave close Attendance on those, of the Ministry, and several other Members of the Parliament of Scotland, during all the last Session thereof, which terminated in the Year 1707. And this Deponent faith, That (to his own certain knowledge) the Complainant was then very diligent and affifting to some of

of the Officers of State, and Members of Committee, in explaining and illustrating several Passages in the aforesaid Articles, that were excepted against, or not clearly understood by some of the then Members of Parliament; and that the Parliament of Scotland had so great a Sense of his publick Services on that Occasion, that they were pleased to recommend him to her Majesty's gracious Favour. And surther saith not this Deponent that is material, or of any Advantage to the Complainant, than what he this Deponent hath to the several Interrogatories already before declared.

Vera Copia Depositionis Capt' Per me Joh. Hall, Extr' Apud Secretar' Edinburgensis.

RODERICK MACKENZIE.

At London, the 6th of November, 1695.

Urfuant to an Act of Parliament of the Kingdom of Scotland, En-No. I. titled, Act for a Company Trading to Africa and the Indies, We the Subscribers do each of us for himself, and not one for another, become obliged for the Payment of the respective Sums by us severally Subscribed, subject to the following Rules and Conditions, viz. That the Joint-Stock, or Capital Fund, of the said Company, do consist of Six hundred thousand Pounds Sterling: Whereof one Quarter part shall be paid at the time of Subscription, to two or more of the Persons named in the said Act of Parliament; and the Remainder thereof in such Parts and Proportions, Time and Manner, as the said Company shall, from time to time, direct and appoint.

That if any of the Subscribers or Proprietors of the said Stock or Capital Fund, shall not pay or cause to be payed, the remaining part of his, her, or their Subscriptions in such Time, Manner and Proportion, as shall be, from time to time, appointed by the said Company; or in case they, or any of them, shall become Indebted to the said Company, any other ways howsoever, the Part or Share of Stock in the said Fund, belonging to such Person or Persons, shall from thence forward, be and remain to the use of the said Company, to be by them sold and disposed of, for paying and satisfying fuch Debt, so become due unto them.

That in regard Mr. William Paterson, and others concern'd with him, have been at great Pains and Expence, in making several confiderable Discoveries of Trade and Improvements, in and to both the Indies; and likewise in procuring needful Powers and Privileges for a Company of Commerce from several Sovereign Princes and States; and for which he and they have contrived, suited and designed the said Company: In Consideration whereof, it is hereby agreed, that the said William Paterson, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall, out of the first Payment, have and receive Two ser Cent. of the Mony to be subscribed in the said Capital Fund; as also Three per Cent. of the Issues, Profits and Product of the said Fund, for the space of Twenty one Years; which shall be Redeemable for Two per Cent. more of the said Capital Fund, any time in Five Years.

That the Government, Management, Power and Disposition of the faid Joint-Stock or Capital Fund, and other Matters, Things and Effects whatfoever, of or belonging to the faid Company, shall, in all time hereafter, be and remain in a Court of Directors, confifting of the Persons named in the said Act of Parliament, together with fuch others as shall be Proprietors of the respective Sums of One Thoufand Pounds Sterling, or more, in the faid Joint-Stock or Fund, and shall likewise be deputed in Writing, by such other Proprietors therein, as (including fuch Thousand Pounds Sterling or more) shall compleat the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds Sterling thereof: Provided, that none be admitted to Depute more than one Person for one and the same Sum or Proportion of his Stock: And in case the full number of Fifteen Persons be not so Deputed, in one Month after one Moiety thereof shall be Subscribed, or if the full Number of Thirty Persons be not Deputed in one Month after the whole shall be Subscribed: In either of the said Cases, the Court of Directors, for the time, may by Majority of Votes, signified by Scrol and Scrutiny, compleat the faid Numbers, or either of them.

And it is hereby Declared and Understood, That the Persons nam'd in the said Act of Parliament, or the Survivors of them, are, were, and ought to be a compleat Court, until others be added unto them, in manner aforesaid; and that the manner of compleating the Number, and continuing the Succession of Fifty Directors, appointing the Times and Places of Meeting, the Quorum of the Persons, the Constituting and Impowering of Committees and Sub-committees of their own Number, fixing of Servants, setling of Fees and Sallaries, and all other Matters and Things relating to the said Company, shall be ordered, fixed, and settled in the Constitutions to be made by the said Court of Directors, and that every Director or Member of the said Court,

Court, and all others concern'd in the said Company, be concluded by, and subject to such Elections, Successions, Scrutinies, Censures, Deprivations, Dis-abilities, Ordinances and Rules, as shall be made and contained in such Constitutions.

And that the faid Joint-Stock and Capital Fund shall be, remain and continue, subject unto all such further and other Rules, Conditions and Qualifications, and to be used, governed, ordered and disposed of, as the said Company shall, from time to time, Direct and Appoint.

Africa and the Indies, do hereby Conftitute and Appoint Mefficurs James Smith and James Campbel of London Merchants and Directors of this Company, to execute, do and perform all and every Part of the following Instructions, for and in behalf of this Company, and do hereby declare, that all Matters or Things agreed, done and concluded upon by them, with Relation and pursuant to the said Instructions, shall be Good and Valid, and be Binding and Obliging to this Company.

GENTLEMEN,

WHEN you come to London, you are to repair to Mr. James Foulis, to know whether he intends to hold his Subscription in this Company; and if so, you are, jointly with him the said Mr. James Foulis, who in that Case is equally Impower'd with you, to execute and perform the following Instructions: But if he Decline being any further Concern'd therein, you shall then, and in that Case, receive from the said Mr. James Foulis all such Sum and Sums of Mony belonging to this Company, as he hath now in his Hands; and you shall give unto him, or the Subscribers, or the respective Proprietors thereof, such sufficient Receipt, for the use of this Company, as shall be needful.

You shall use the most speedy and effectual Means to receive the first Payments of such of the Subscribers at London, as are willing to hold and continue their Subscriptions to this Company, and take the Answers of such as are unwilling to be concern'd therein, and return an Account thereof to this Court, that their Subscriptions may be disposed of otherwise.

You shall nominate one or more fit and sufficient Persons to this Court, in order to have them Constituted your Affistants in the Pre-misses.

You shall keep regular and fair Accompts of the Mony you receive, and of all your Transactions for the Company, and transmit the same, from time to time, to the Committee of Trade of this Company.

You are to observe all such further Rules and Instructions, as to you shall be transmitted from time to time, by the Committee of

I rade of this Company.

To Messieurs James Smith and James Campbel, Directors of the said Company.

GENTLEMEN,

London, 22d July, 1696.

Inclos'd please receive an Account of what past at a Meeting be-NoIV twixt sundry of the English Subscribers and us: Several others were advertised but did not come; we shall endeavour to have the next Meeting as full as may be; tho' we must act with all Privacy and Prudence: If any of the Subscribers continue, they will publickly decline, and take their own way, before the 10th of August, to remit their first Payment. Mr. fames Foulis is to return Answer to the Company's Letter, under cover to Sir Archibald Muir, this Post; but hath given us as yet no particular Account; only in general, That nothing is left in his Hands. Which with tender of due Respects, is the needful at present from,

Gentlemen,

To the Committee of Foreign Trade, &c. at Edinburgh. Your most humble Servants,

JAMES CAMPBEL.

JAMES SMITH.

London, 22d July, 1696.

A T at Meeting of fundry English Subscribers to the Scots Indian Company, by the Appointment of Messieurs James Smith and

James Campbel.

Mr. Campbel acquainted the Gentlemen with the Company's Honourable Respect towards them, and their Willingness to continue them as Members of their Society, upon the Terms proposed in the printed Advertisement then delivered in, ordering the first Payment to be made before the 10th of August next.

The Company's Instructions to Messieurs Smith and Campbel, was laid before them and read.

The Gentlemen unanimously acknowledged the Company's Favour in making them so fair an Offer, protesting their sincere Affection to the Undertaking; but believed, in their Opinion, that it was not safe for any residing in England to be concerned: Therefore declared their Resolutions to relinquish their Subscriptions to the said Company; and that it is also the Resolutions of the other Subscribers, to whom they did intimate the Company's Proposal.

Mr. James Foulis declared, That all the Mony and Notes formerly deposited in his Hands, were some time ago returned to the Owners.

Messieurs Smith and Campbel desired the Gentlemen to consider surther (if they pleased) of the Matter, until Monday next at seven of the Clock at Night, when they would again attend at the same Place, and to Advertise such others of the Subscribers as they are acquainted with, of the next Meeting, which they promised to do; mean time, Messieurs Smith and Campbel are daily to be spoken with, before the 10th of August, at Monerais Scribes Cossee-house, at Three of the Clock in the Asternoon.

The Gentlemen intreated, That the most secret Way might be used in Discoursing any of the Subscribers on that Subject.

Printed Advertisements, ordering the first Payments before the roth of August, were deliver'd to these Gentlemen, who promis'd carefully to shew the same unto the other Subscribers.

And then Adjourn'd 'till Monday next at Seven a-Clock at Night.

GENTLEMEN, London, 28th Day of July, 1696.

OUR last to you was of the 22d current (to which refers) since are savour'd with none of yours. According to Appointment formerly advised of, did Yesterday meet some of the English Subscribers, who gave us their Determinate Answer in that Matter, which is the same the others gave before. The want of a Copy of their Subscription-Book is a Disadvantage to us; for we can have no List of their Names here, else would have spoken to each of them particularly. Some here are of Opinion, the Company ought to publish an Advertisement in some of the News Papers on this Occasion: Others urge, that all manner of publick Notice may be evited, lest it may irritate. We leave it to you, who are the more competent Judges, what may be necessary to exoner the Company, so as such, who do now decline, shall have no Pretence of a Demand, when you have made successful Progress in Business.

We shall continue to advise what may be of use, as Occasion requires; mean time remain with all due Respects,

Gentlemen, Your most humble Servants,

JAMES CAMPBEL,
JAMES SMITH.

At a Court of Directors of the Company of Scotland Trading to Africa and the Indies, at Edinburgh, the 6th Day of October, 1696.

HE Court confidering the great Expence that William Pater son, one No. VII. of the Directors of the said Company, has been at, for several Years past, in making valuable Discoveries of Commerce and Navigation to both the Indies; and he having delivered in several curious Manuscript-Books, Maps, Journals, and other Papers of Commerce relating thereto, henceforth to be appropriated to the Company's Use: And having further evidenced his Affection to his Native Country, by his relinquishing England, and any profitable Establishments he had, or might at present have in that Kingdom, to his evident Damage and Loss. Therefore the said Court of Directors do hereby allow the faid William Pater son to Transfer and dispose of the Sum of Fifteen Thousand Pounds Sterling of the Subscriptions now vested in this Court of Directors, that is to fay, of the Eightv Five Thousand Pounds of such English Subscriptions as are not yet disposed of by this Court, and to take and apply to his own proper Use, the first Quarter Payment thereof, extending to the Sum of Three Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds Sterling, together also with the like further Sum of Three Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Pounds Sterling, being the first Quarter-part of the Sums Subscrib'd by him the said William Paterson, and Messieurs James Smith, Daniel Lodge, James Campbel, and Joseph Cohen D' Azevedo, Merchants in London; amounting in the whole to the Sum of Seven Thousand and Five Hundred Pounds Sterling. And further, for his Merit in contriving the Principal Defigns, and Constancy in promoting the Service of this Company; the faid Court of Directors have resolved to take into their further Consideration, what suitable Gratifications they will appoint for him out of the Subsequent Profits of their Trade; and Proportionate the same to the Success thereof.

Resolved, That the Resolution above-written, be laid before the Council-General of this Company at their next Meeting for their Approbation, and that 'till then the same shall not be put in Execution, nor take any Effect.

IN Obedience to your Lordships Order of the Eighteenth of June last, We James Dunlop and John Symmer Accomptants to the Insian and African Company of Scotland, do hereby Certify and Declare, That William Paterson, Esq. his Accompt of Debt and Credit as above-written, is the exact Double of his Accompt, as the same is stated in the Books of the said Company; by which Accompt he is resting a Balance of Four Inundred Thirty Five Pounds Fifteen Shillings One and One Third Peny Sterling. In witness whereof, We have Subscrib'd these Presents with our Hands at Edinburgh the Second Day of July One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eight Years.

JAMES DUNLOP Accomptant.
JOHN SYMMER Accomptant.

Ames Dunlop and John Symmer, Accomptants to the Indian and African Company of Scotland, make Oath, that the above Accompt, figned and given in by them the 2d of July last, is the exact Double or Extract of William Paterson, Esq; his Accompt with the said Company, as the same is stated in the Books of Accompts of that Company, and that there is no more chargeable upon him by the said Company, to the best of their Knowledge.

Jurat 5 August, 1708. Coram me A. Maitland. JAMES DUNLOP Accomptant.

JOHN SYMMER Accomptant.

Here followeth an unsigned Paper without Date, Direction or Place, offered against Mr. Paterson's Claim, entituled, Mr. Paterson's Claim upon the Equivalent of Scotland Examined and Answered.

THE Parliament of Scotland past an Act in the Year 1695, constituting and appointing certain Persons therein named, together with fuch as they should admit into their Society, to be one Body incorporate by the Name of, The Company of Scotland Trading to Africa and the Indies, and granting Power to the faid Company by Subscriptions, or otherwise as they should think fit, to raise a Joint-Stock or Capital Fund of such Sum or Sums of Mony, and subject to fuch Rules, Conditions, and Qualifications as by the aforesaid Company, or major part of them when assembled, should be limited and appointed to begin, carry on, and support their intended Trade of Navigation, and whatfoever might contribute to the Advancement thereof. The Persons named in the Act of Parliament, for taking Subscriptions for the behoof of the Company were Twenty in Number, Ten of whom refided in Scotland, and Ten in England; three of the Nominees who lived in Scotland, having gone to London, to concert Measures with the other Nominees who refided there for carrying on the Affairs of the Company, they opened Books for taking Subscriptions in Eigland, and in the Preamble to the faid Subicriptions they declared among other things, that the Joint-Stock or Capital Fund should confift of 600000 Sterling, and that Mr. Paterson and others concerned with him having been at great Pains and Expence, in making several considerable Discoveries of Trade and Improvements, in and to hab the Indiesa Indies, the said Mr. Paterson should out of the first Payment have and receive two per Cent. of the Mony to be Subscribed in the said Capital Fund; as also three per Cent out of the Profits of the said Fund for the space of twenty one Years, which should be redeemable for two per Cent. more of the said Capital Fund, any time in five Years.

Upon this pretended Grant of the Major part of the Nominees met at London the fixth of November, 1697, Mr. Paterson founds his Pretensions to twelve thousand Pound, as being after the rate of two per Cent. for the fix hundred thousand Pounds that were to be Subscribed to the Capital-Stock, and over and above to three per Cent. out of all the Profits that should be made of the said Principal Fund.

How insufficient and groundless Mr. Paterson's Pretentions are in this matter, will clearly appear from the following Considerations.

I. That the Nominees appointed by A&t of Parliament to take Subfcriptions, had no Power to dispose of any part of the Stock of the Company, or to make any Rules or Orders that should be binding on the Members of the Company.

II. That the Preamble to the Subscription taken in England, on which Mr. Paterson founds his Grant, if it be of any force at all, could only bind those who Subscribed in England, and consequently could not be of any Avail to Mr. Paterson, seeing all the English Subscribers withdrew their Subscription before ever the Company was formed.

III. That the African Company in Scotland, after it was regularly formed into a Society, never looked upon themselves to be any ways indebted to Mr. Paterson, on account of the pretended Grant made him by the Nominees assembled at London, nor did they ever give him any Gredit in their Books on that score.

IV. That Mr. Paterson himself never insisted on any such Grant in the Applications which he made to the Company for a Reward of the Services which he pretended to have rendred them, but lest it wholly to their own Generosity to Recompence him in what manner they should think sit.

V. That Mr. Paterson, instead of being a Creditor to the African Company, as he pretends, appears to be Indebted to them in a Sum exceeding seventeen thousand Pounds; and consequently, instead of claiming any thing out of the Equivalent, ought to be called upon by the Commissioners of the Equivalent for the Sums which he owes to the faid Company.

First, The Persons named in the Act of Parliament, had no Power to dilpose of any part of the Stock of the Company, or to make any Regulation to bind all the Members of the Company; the Defign of their Nomination was only to take in Subscriptions, and to aggregate new Members, in order to form the Company that was to carry on this Foreign Trade, and to do this they had the space of thirteen Months allowed them, viz. to the first of August, 1696. When this time was expired, and the Subscription-Books shut up, the Company was then intirely formed into a Body, which confifted of all the Proprietors of the Mony Subscribed; these Proprietors being all met together, had Power to appoint Courts and Committees, to make Orders and Regulations for the Management of their common concerns, and all the Members were obliged to fubmit to fuch Directions as should be agreed to by a Majority of them; and accordingly when all the Subscriptions were finished, a general Meeting of all the Proprietors was called, where, by a Majority of Voices, they fettled their Committees, and made Rules and Constitutions for the Management of the Stock and Trade of the Company: It was then, and not before, that they begun to Act as a Company, and that their Managers had Power from their Constituents to make Bargains, and to Contract for them. Whatever the Nominees did before the Subscriptions were taken, could bind no Body but themselves, because they had no Body to represent 'till Persons had once Subscribed, and the Company was regularly formed. The Company, as it was conflituted by the Act of Parliament, was to confift not barely of the twenty Persons named in the A&t, but of them, together with others who should join with them by Subscription before the first of August, 1696. It was to all the Subscribers in general that the Parliament granted the Authority and Privileges of a Company, and not to twenty Men alone; and if the twenty Persons who were named in the Act of Parliament to be as it were a Foundation of the Company, to which other Persons might Associate themselves by Subscription, in order to perfect and accomplish the Society, did pretend to act as a Company, or to prescribe any Laws or Rules before the Society was perfected, they usurped a Power which did not belong to them, and what they did was Ipso facto Null, and Void. It was never in the least intended in the Erection of the Company to lodge any such Power in the Hands of the Nominees, as that they might dispose of the Capital-Stock, and prescribe Restrictions and Limitations to the Trade of the Company, as they should think fit. Every Subscriber Subscribed his Name with this Confidence and Assurance, that he should have his Vote in the disposal of it, either in Person or by Proxy: And that this was the general Sense and Meaning of all the Proprietors, appears from the eighth Constitution of the Company, whereby it is expresly Provided, That no Dividend of Profits, or any fart of the Joint-Stock, should be disposed of without the Consent of the General Council. Befides, the Parliament of Scotland was fo Cautious and Provident to lettle the Direction and Management of the Affairs of the Company in the Hands of Scotch residing within the Kingdom of Scotland, that it directed, that one half of the Capital Stock should be Subferibed by Inhabitants of Scotland, and should not be alienable to any Foreigners whatfoever, nay, not fo much as to Natives of Scotland. who were fettled in other Countries. Can it be imagin'd that the Parliament of Scotland, which took this Precaution to lodge the Management of the Affairs of the Company in the Hands of the Inhabitants of that Kingdom, as all other Nations do in the like cases, ever intended to give Power to eight or ten Scotch Men, Merchants in London, to dispose of any part of the Stock of the Company, and that before it had any Stock, and before the Company was fully formed, when the Parliament would not fo much as allow the Proprietors themselves of the Monies Subscribed in Scotland, to Alienate or Dispose of any part of them to Persons living out of the Kingdom? What a strange Infatuation must it be in a Man, to fancy that ten of the Nominees refiding out of Scotland, should have any Power to give away out of the Scotch Subscriptions, in which they had no manner of interest or concern, four per Cent. to Mr. Paterson and his Friends living at London? The Defign of inferting the Names of those Gentlemen in the Act of Parliament, was only to facilitate the taking of Subscriptions at London, and if they took upon them to make any Contracts in the Name of the Company before it was formed, they exceeded their Commission, and assumed to themselves a Power which was never intended to be lodged in them, neither by the Parliament of Scotland, nor the Company; and whatever Contract or Bargain they should pretend to make in the Name of the Company, could be no ways binding on the Members of the Company.

Secondly, Since therefore the Nominees residing in London had no Power to act any further in the Company's Concerns but to take in Subscriptions, whatever Contracts that may have made with Mr. Paterson, it could never affect the Company; and if it were allowed to have any effect at all, it would be only on the Subscriptions that were taken in England, seeing all that can be said for it is, that the English Subscribers did all of them agree to this Condition. Whatever the English Subscribers may have agreed to, yet they did not pretend that it should be binding on any Body but themselves, for the words of their Preamble are; We the Subscribers do each of us for himfelf, and not one for another, become obliged, &c. But even in this Case all the whole Number of English Subscribers, and not the English Nominees alone, had particularly and expresty stipulated this with Mr. Paterson, such an Agreement could be of no force to bind the Company, till it had been ratifyed and approved of by the Company in Scotland. For the Company might have refused the English Subscriptions, that were thus clogg'd with any such exorbitant Grant. The Subscribers in Scotland might have had very good Ground to remonstrate against it, and to ask why the English Subscribers should be allowed to give away two per Cent out of the Capital Stock, and three out of the Profit, whilft they in Scotland subscribed and paid in their Monies, without stipulating any Terms or Conditions, leaving the Disposal and Management of all to the Company when fully affembled, as is usual in the Erection of all Companies whatsoever. But altho' this Claim of Mr. Paterson's had been good against the Subscriptions taken in England, which it is Plain it could not unless the Agreement made between the English Nominees and Mr. Paterfon had been ratifyed by the Company in Scotland, yet it entirely ceases, because none of the Subscriptions taken in England were ever paid into the Company, or brought to any Account on the Company's Books. The Discouragement which the Company met with, made all the English Subscribers withdraw their Subscriptions, so that their Subscriptions vanishing, the Clog with which they were burdened did likewise vanish of course.

Thirdly, The English Subscribers having all of them withdrawn their Subscriptions, which amounted to 300000 l. the People of Scotland found themselves necessitated to go on with their Undertaking with what Stock they could raise in their own Kingdom, since they saw that they were to expect no Assistance from their Neighbours; accordingly they opened their Books at Edinburgh, on the 26th Day of February, 1696, in order to take Subscriptions, and the Preamble to their Subscriptions is drawn up in these words.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament, entituled, an Act for a Company Trading to Africa and the Indies, we the Subscribers do each of us for himself become obliged for the Payment of the respective Sums severally subscribed by us, subject to the Rules, Conditions and Constitutions of the Said Company.

Is there any thing in these words, by vertue of which Mr. Paterfon can claim any thing from the African Company? And yet if he have any Demand at all, it must be founded on this Preamble, it must be against the Persons who subscribed to it, for they alone did constitute the Company, it was of their Subscriptions alone that the Joint-Stock of the faid Company was composed. Have the Subscribers here made any Bargain with Mr. Pater fon, have they promifed him two per Cent out of their Capital-Stock, and three out of their Profits? Yes, fays Mr. Parerson, the Subscribers in Scotland have subjected their Subscription Mony to the Rules, Conditions and Constitutions of the Company, and the Company (that is) the Nominees at London) agreed to give him certain Shares out of the Stock and Profits. the Subscribers did subject their Monies to the Rules, Conditions and Conflitutions of the Company is most certain. And so must all Subscribers do who Join in any Company whatsoever, they must agree that the Monies which they contribute, shall be applied to such Uses for the Interest and Benefit of the Company, as the major part of the Com any shall direct. But do the Subscribers in Scotland agree, by that Clause of the Preamble, That the Nominees in Scotland should have Power to dispose of their Mony as they should think fit? No; fuch a Power was never claimed by the Nomines in Scotland, and never intended them by the Subscribers; so that although Mr. Pater son had made his Contract Expresly with the Nominees in Scotland, it could never have been of any force to bind the Members of the Company, unless it had been ratifyed by the Company after that it was regularly formed into a Body. If therefore the Scotch Nominees, who took in all the Subscriptions of which the Stock of the Company was composed, could not burden the Joint-Stock with any such Contract as Mr. Paterson pretends; nay further, if the Company it felf when fully constituted, had not Power to alienate any part of their Stock to Persons residing without the Kingdom, how is it possible for any Man to dream that the English Nominees, who had no hand in forming the Stock of the Company, who procured no Contributions towards it, made none of their Subscriptions effectual, should be allowed to burden that Stock, which belonged wholly to other Perfons.

fons, and which they had no hand in collecting? The Nominces in Scotland who took in Subscriptions, they were to far from thinking themselves tyed up by any thing transacted by the Nominees at London, that they acted in a direct Opposition to what had been there resolved on. The English Subscribers having withdrawn their Subscriptions, and abandoned the Interests of the Company, the Managers in Scotland did not think themselves further obliged to Act in concert with the Nominees at London, and therefore, whereas it had been concerted at London, that only 300000 l. Sterling should be raised in Scotland, they took Subscriptions for Four hundred thousand Pounds, because they saw themselves reduced to carry on their Undertaking with their own proper Stock, and were not to expect any Affiftance from England. Had the English Subscriptions gone on, and been made effectual, and if it had appeared to the Company that Mr. Pater on had been any way instrumental in procuring Subscriptions in England, perhaps the Company might have been ready enough to reward his Services, but since the whole Stock of the Company was made up of the Subscriptions taken in Scotland, there does not seem to be the least Colour or Pretext for Mr. Pater son's Demand of a Gratification. Must the People of Scotland be obliged to gratify him, because he could do the Company no Service in England, because that he was not able to procure them one Subscription? and Mr. Paterson himself does not pretend that there was any one in Scotland that subscribed on his Account, or by his Influence, and the Company was so far from thinking themselves indebted to Mr. Pater son on the Account of any pretended Contract, which he had entered into with the Nominees at London, that they never made the least mention of it in the first Constitutions of the Company, which were made after all the Subscriptions were compleated in a full Assembly of all the Proprietors, neither did they ever give him any Credit in their Books on that Score.

Fourthly, Nay, Mr. Pater son himself was so sensible, that he had no right to Demand any thing of the Company, by vertue of that pretended Contract with the English Nominees, that he made repeated Applications to the Directors of the Company, that they would be pleased to recompence his Servees in what manner they should think sit; the Directors did at last, in Compliance with Mr. Pater son's desire, agree, that he should have the Sum of seven thousand sive hundred Pounds, not out of the Company's Stock raised in Scotland, but out of the Subscriptions which he was impowered to take in Holland or other parts beyond Sea, and out of the Monies which he himself, and some of his Friends at London had subscribed: Unless he could make these several Subscriptions effectual, he was to have nothing, and even altho' the Subscriptions should be made effectual, he was not to have this Sum, which the Directors allotted him, unless their Refolution were approved of by the General Council of the Company. Mr. Pater son was present in the Court of Directors, as being one of their Number, when this Order was made, and did not pretend to find fault with it, nor to infift on any right by vertue of his Contract with the English Nominees. The Subscriptions on which the Directors had allotted the Payment of the Monies they intended as a Gratification to Mr. Pater son were never made effectual, and the General Council refused to approve of the Order of the Directors in relation to the faid Gratification, fo that Mr. Pater son could not pretend to any right by vertue of that Order of the Directors, which never had the final Sanction of the Company, for want of the Approbation of the General Council; and although the Grant had received the Approbation of the Council, yet it must have proved ineffectual, because the Condition on which it was made was never performed. When this Order of the Directors was laid before the Council General, in order to have their Appobation, it appeared to them that Mr. Pater son had in his Hands 20000 l. of the Company's Mony, and there fore they thought it time enough to consider of a Gratification to him when he had once made up his Accompts for that Sum. Mr. Paterson in his Accompt with the Company, states himself Creditor for 16893 l. 2s. 4d. which he had paid to Mr. Smith for the Company's Use. But he having paid this Mony without any Order from the Company, and to one who went off with it, and nevermade any Accompt, the Company still look'd upon Mr. Paterson as chargeable with the Mony which he paid to Mr. Smith, as well as with the 435 l. 15 s. 13d. which he acknowledged to be remaining in his Hands, as Balance due from him to the Company, so that if the Company found Mr. Paterson to be in their Debt upwards of Seventeen Thousand Pounds, it was no wonder that the General Council should be of Opinion to put off the confidering of a Gratification to him, till he should make up his Accompts with the Company. And that the General Council looked upon Mr. Pater son to be considerably indebted to the Company, does clearly appear from their Journals, in which particular mention is made of the Persons who were appointed to treat with him, concerning the Measures he would propose for satisfying the Balance due by him to the Company. Fifthly, Fifthly, It appearing therefore that Mr. Paterson, instead of being a Creditor, is rather a Debtor to the African Company of Scotland, he was no way entituled to claim any share of the Mony of the Equilent, that was appropriated to pay off the Capital-Stock and Debts of the faid Company, in order to reimburse the Proprietors and Crcditors of the African Company out of the Monies of the Equivalent. The Directors of the Company were empowered by Act of Pailiament to draw up Lists of the Names of the Proprietors of the Joint-Stock, and of the Creditors who had Debts owing to them by the Company; and a certain Sum, not exceeding 2328841. 5s. 3d. was allotted by Parliament for discharging the Capital-Stock, Interest, and Debts of the faid Company. Mr. Pater son finding himself left. out of the List of the Creditors, made Application to the Directors to have his Name inserted; but they answered him, that since he was not stated as a Creditor in the Books of the Company, they could not warrantably insert him in their List; they were directed to go according to the Books of the Company, and they could not answer the charging the Company with a Debt which the Company themselves had never owned, and indeed which Mr. Paterson himself had never claimed from the Company as a Debt. Besides, the Directors could not agree to Mr. Paterson's unreasonable Demands, without doing the greatest Injustice imaginable to the Proprietors of the Company. For if Mr. Paterson's Request had been granted, several of the Proprietors who had advanced their Mony, must have been necessarily excluded from their share of the Equivalent, since the Parliament allotted no more Mony to be paid to the African Company out of the Equivalent, but a certain determinate sum not exceeding 2328841. § s. 2 d. which ferved barely to pay off the Subscribers of their Principal Mony, and Interest, and the Creditors who had advanced Mony or Effects to the Company. And I believe no Body will fay, but these Persons had a right to be paid off in the first Place, before any Demands could take place for Gratifications. Mr. Paterson, upon this Refusal of the Directors, applyed himself for Redress to the Parliament of Great Britain in the Year 1708, and the Parliament was pleased to direct the Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland to hear and examine Mr. Paterson's Pretensions, to make a full and fair Representation thereof to her Majesty.

Which was indeed the properest course that could be taken to do Justice both to Mr. Paterson, and to the African Company, against whom this Demand lay. His Claim was for a private Debt owing to him in Scotland, which was certainly to be determined according to the Articles of the Union, in the Courts of Justice in Scotland; and although no fuch thing were expresly stipulated by the Articles of Union, yet it is the universal received Maxim of Judicial Proceedings in all Countries, that Actor, Sequitur Forum Rei: If the Plaintiff will have his Right, he must go and sue for it where his Adversary lives. Mr. Paterson was never to imagine, that the Directors and others concerned in the African Company, should be halled up to London to answer his imaginary Pretentions, nor that any thing would be decreed in his Favour 'till the Adverse Party were heard, and therefore it was that the Parliament put him in the regular way of fuing for Justice, by directing him to lay his Case before the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, who being a Court of Justice in the Country where Mr. Paterson's pretended Debtors live, could without any great Charge or Trouble to the Subject, call the Directors of the Company before them, to hear what they had to fay against Mr. Paterson's Claim, could order all the Books and Records of the Company to be brought in, they might from thence have a full and clear Information of the whole matter; and indeed it is absolutely necessary, in order to form a legal proof from the faid Records, that the Original Books themselves be produced, because the Company being now dissolved, and all the Officers belonging to it discharged by Law, whatever Extracts may be made out of the Books, by the Person who was once Secretary to the Company (which are the only Proofs that Mr. Pater son has offered to produce) are not to be looked upon as Authentick Copies, to be received as a Proof in a Court of Judicature, and are to be accounted only as private Extracts made by a private Person, who is no longer in a publick Capacity; neither is it by any means proper that the Records belonging to the Company should be left in the Hands of any private Person whatsoever, they ought to be lodg'd in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, because the Debts that are due to the Company are vested in the Queen, to be applyed to the same Ends and Uses for which the Equivalent is granted; and how can fuch Debts be ever recovered, unless the Books and Papers, by which the Debts are to be instructed, are taken out of private Hands, and Deposited in some publick Register?

In Obedience to the Order of Parliament, the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland did Examine Judicially Mr. Paterson's Pretensions, and the Reasons offered by the Directors of the Company for mot giving him a place in the Lift of their Creditors, and were fully satisfyed fatisfyed to the Justice and Integrity of the Director's Proceedings. So Mr. Paterson finding that the Report of the Judges was not like to be favourable to him, did not think fit to tarry till they should make their Report to the Queen, as the Act of Parliament directs, but applies himself anew to the House of Commons, praying them to take his Case into Consideration. It is to be hoped that since the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland have taken sull Cognizance of this Matter in a Judicial way, as being a matter of private Right and Property, and have heard both Parties, the House of Commons, before they do any thing surther in it, will have the Report of the Barons laid before them.

If the Parliament is disposed to do any Act of Charity to Mr. Paterson, there is no Body in Scotland that will oppose it, providing it be done in such a manner as may not prejudice the Right of any third Person. But for Mr. Paterson to start a Claim on the African Company, which has no manner of Foundation, and which he himself never insisted upon 'till after the Parliament had appointed the Proprietors and Creditors of the Company to be paid out of the Mony of the Equivalent, is thought to be a very unfair and disingenious Practice.

For him to trump up at this time of Day against the Company, a Contract which he pretends to have made with a few Persons at London, a Contract which was never owned or approved by the Company, and which he himself never pretended to insist on whilst the Company was in Being; and by vertue of this Contract to demand a Portion of the Capital-Stock of the Company, which he fays eight or ten Merchants of London made over to him, and which the Act of Parliament by which the Company is Constituted, says expresly, that the whole Company united together could not convey to him, to demand at the Rate of two per Cent. for 600000 l. when all the World knows that there never was above 400000 l. Subscribed, and not much above 100000 l. paid in: I say, for him to make so unreasonable a Demand without the least Foundation of Right or Title, and to think that either the People of Scotland would wink at such a gress Imposition upon them, or that the Justice of the Nation would overlook it, is to have a vast conceit of his own Cunning and Sagacity, and a very low Opinion of the Integrity and Penetration of others. And as there is no Foundation for Mr. Paterson's Demand from the Company, by vertue of that pretended Contract with the English Nominees, so neither has he the least pretence to claim claim any thing as a Debt for the Pains and Expences he was at for the Company's Service, fince he himself owns in his Account Current with the Company, that he had received twenty Shillings a day for all the time that he was employed in the Company's Service in Holland and Hamburgh, and the two Gentlemen who were joined in Commission with him had no more; but should they find Mr. Paterson were indulged a further Gratification, over and above his allowance from the Company, it is not to be doubted but they will come in with a fresh Demand upon the Monies of the Equivalent, for an extraordinary Gratification of their Services likewise.

And feeing Mr. Paterson has no just Claim upon the African Company upon any Account whatfoever, it's certain he can have none upon the Equivalent, which is by Act of Parliament Establishing the Union appropriated to certain Uses therein specified, and cannot be diverted on any Pretence whatfoever. On the contrary, Mr. Paterfon being a Debtor to the African Company, instead of claiming any thing out of the Equivalent, is liable to be fued by the Commissioners for the Sums in which he stands indebted to the Company; all which Debts due to the Company are vested in Her Majesty, for the Uses to which the Equivalent was granted, and the Commissioners of the Equivalent are appointed and required to call for them, and to apply them to the faid Ends and Uses: Had the faid Mr. Pater son paid in the 17000 l. which he owes the Company, this would have gone a great way towards the Relief of several Officers, whose Labours and Fatigues in the Defence of their Country, during these late Wars, are still unrewarded, because their Debts come in among the publick Debts of the Nation, which are directed to be paid immediately after the Proprietors and Creditors of the African Company are satisfied; so that the whole Mony of the Equivalent being already appropriated by the Act of the Union, to certain particular Uses, and that particular Quota of it which the Parliament affigned for paying off the African Company, being entirely exhausted, and already disposed of to the Proprietors, and just Creditors of the Company, if the Parliament should be of Opinion to grant Mr. Paterson any thing towards the Relief of his Necessities, it is humbly conceived that it would be necessary to allot him Payment of it out of some other Fund than that of the Equivalent, which is already fettled and applied to other Uses.

OBSERVATIONS

UPON THE

Forgoeing Paper, and other pretended OBJECTIONS, Against his

CLAIM.

THE Principal Allegations of this Paper are, by the Author, reduced to five Propositions or Heads, which, with some Remarks and Observations thereupon, are as follow, viz.

That the Nominees appointed by Ast of Parliament to take Subscri-Allegations, had no Power to dispose of any part of the Stock of the Company, tion I. or to make any Rules or Orders, that should be binding on the Members of the Company.

By the Act of the Parliament of Scotland, for Constituting the ofernaliate African and Indian Company there, the Nominees or Patention Is tees therein mentioned were Impowered "By Subscription or otherwise, as they should think fit, to raise a Joint Stock, or "Constitution"

66 Capital Fund of fuch Sum or Sums of Mony, and under and 46 subject to such Rules, Conditions and Qualifications, as by them " or the Major Part of them should be Limitted or Appointed.

Though this Clause be thus particularly Expressed in that Act of Parliament, yet was it not Essentially necessary, since in all fuch Cases the Matter thereof is tacitly understood, or otherwise no Man could ever safely Engage in a Subscription, where the Original Agreement was supposed to be Precarious, or could be broke through.

The ten Nominees in London were very Cautious, and well advised in their Proceedings; no step was by them made, till three Persons Deputed from the other ten Nominees in Scotland were arrived to their Affiftance, and then confidering how they were to venture their Estates to a Place, then very distant in Laws and Customs, as well as Situation, they were resolved to secure themselves by Compact as well as they could, and therefore Unanimously agreed to those Constitutions or Conditions, which they put at the Head of their Subscriptions, to be, and remain, as Fundamental Rules; among which the Agreement with Mr. Paterson (without whose Reputation and Interest they could not then pretend to get their Subscriptions) was one of the Articles.

The Principal of the other Articles were,

I. That the Joint Stock of the Company should confist of 600000 %

II. That one fourth part thereof should be paid in on the Subscription, and the Remainder in such Parts and Proportions as they should afterwards appoint.

III. That in Case any Subscriber should neglect his further Payments, or become otherwise Indebted to the Company, the Sums already advanced should be liable to make Satisfaction.

IV. That the fole Government and Management of the Company should be in fifty Directors; twenty five whereof were then Understood to represent the Interest in London, and the other twenty five in Scotland.

All this is particularly proved by Mr. Roderick Mackenzie, the late Company's Secretary, his Depositions, and Extracts out of the Company's Register Books, Copies whereof are herewith Printed.

That these were Understood to be Fundamental Rules of the Company, and actually executed as such, from its first Institution, till till the Dissolution thereof by the Union, is sufficiently known, not only to eight or nine of the Nominees still alive, but likewife to Numbers of others, both in England and Scotland; and that this was never questioned till upon the Occasion of sharing the Equivalent Mony, after the Commencement of the Union.

That the Preamble to the Subscriptions taken in England, on which Alleg. II: Mr. Paterson founds his Grant, if it be of any force at all, could only bind those who subscribed in England, and consequently could not be of any avail to Mr. Paterson, seeing all the English Subscribers withdrew their Subscriptions, before ever the Company was formed. The contrary of this fecond Allegation likewife plainly appears, Observille by the same Depositions, and Extracts of the said Mr. Roderick Mackenzie; and it is notoriously known, That the Sums subscribed in London, and those in Scotland, were always understood and reputed to be Parts of the same Joint Stock, and subject to the fame Rules and Conditions.

As to the Matter of the Relinquishing the Subscriptions in England, it was an Act of the Sovereign Authority there, in which Mr. Paterson was not concerned, as being no ways obliged to infure that Company against the Accidents which might happen from the Interpositions of Princes, or States. But herein the Writer equally shews his Ignorance in the Publick Transactions, since it's sufficiently known that it was only the Missortunes which happened to that Company, from the Misunderstandings of the two Nations about it, whilst they stood divided, that occasions them now to have so solemn and effectual a Satisfaction of their Losses, from the United Kingdom of Great Britain.

That the African Company in Scotland, after it was regularly Alleg: formed into a Society, never looked upon themselves to be any ways Indebted to Mr. Paterson on Account of the pretended Grant made him by the Nominees assembled at London; nor did they ever give bim any Credit in their Books on that Score.

The third Allegation is no more proved than the rest, and tho' Observed it were, could amount to nothing, fince it only imports, That if the Author owed a Sum of Mony upon Bond, he would not think himself obliged to pay it, 'till it were also entered in his Books.

That Mr. Paterson himself never insisted on any such Grant in the Alleg. Applications which he made to the Company, for a Reward of the Services which he pretended to have rendred them, but left it wholly G 2 to their own Generosity to recompence him in what Manner they should think fit.

Observ. IV.

Admitting the Petitioner had some time or other been inclinable to Compound his Claim during the Space of Eight or Nine Years before the Union, when great Sums of the Monies paid in by the other Proprietors were fold for a Tenth, Twelfth, nav some for a Twentieth Part of the Sums actually advanced, and that during all that time the Company made no manner of Satiffaction to Mr. Paterson; there is now no Reason he should be abridged of his Due, fince he has the Faith of the Treaty equally with the rest of the Persons concerned in that Company, who have been satisfy'd out of the ready Mony, part of the Equivalent.

Alleg.

That Mr. Paterson, instead of being a Creditor to the African Company, as he pretends, appears to be indebted to them in a Sum exceeding 17000 l. and consequently instead of claiming any thing out of the Equivalent, ought to be called upon by the Commissioners of the E. quivalent, for the Sum which he owes to the Said Company.

Observ.

The Falshood of this fifth Allegation manifestly appears by Mr. Paterson's Account Current with the Company, as stated in their Books, and Extracted and sworn unto before the Judges of the Court of Exchequer at Edingburgh, by James Dunlop and John Symmer, who were the Company's Accomptants, from its Commencement to the Dissolution thereof by the Union; a Copy whereof is also herewith Printed; whereby it appears, That of several Sums amounting to 25526l. 8s.  $5\frac{2}{3}d$ . in all, receiv'd by the Petiti ner of the Company, the whole hath been issued to the Company's Order and Use, excepting only the Sum of 435 l. 15 s. 1<sup>2</sup>d, which still remains in his Hands; a Copy of which Account Currant is likewise herewith Printed.

The Enlargements on these five Propositions or Allegations, are fuch a Medly of supposed Facts and Opinions, as makes it not easie to guess the Meaning, as

I. That Mr. Pater son was only 253 Days in the Company's Service, for which he owns himself to be paid at the rate of 20 s. per Diem, which the Author thinks a sufficient Satisfaction for all his Expences and Losses on that Company's Account.

II. That by the Act for Constituting that Company, the Succeffors in the Management thereof were fully impowered to dif-

pence with, or annull the Contracts of their Predecessors in the Direction, without a Salvo Jure.

Ill. That though by the Treaty of Union, the Proprietors of the African and Indian Company of Scotland were to be paid their whole Principal, and five per Cent. Interest; yet that the Author and his Friends might limit those Payments to what Sum they pleas'd.

IV. That those who have, or are to receive the Equivalent Mony, are more proper Judges in the Distribution thereof, than those who gave it.

V. That although the Author be greatly griev'd that Mr. Paterfon should presume to keep this his Contract with the late Company so long a Secret, and to come out with it at this time of Day; yet he is pleased to promise not be angry with the Parliament of Great Britain, if they should allow the Petitioner something out of Charity; and such like.

After this and much more of the like noise, it hath been further pretended, that though it be true, that the Company had thus contracted with the Petitioner, yet that the same is now of no Force, or Effect, as being by him Renounc'd and Releas'd in the Form, and Manner following, viz.

"WHEREAS by the Preamble to the Subscription of the "Company of Scotland, Trading to Africa and the Indies, I Wil-" liam Paterson of the Parish of St. Giles's in the Fields in the Coun-"ty of Middlesex, Esq; my Heirs, Excecutors, Administrators " and Assigns, were to have and receive two per Cent, of the "Sum of 600000 l. to be subscribed, and three per Cent. of the "Profits of the faid Fund for One and twenty Years, or two per " Cent. more of the Sum subscribed, some time in five Years in "lieu thereof: Now know ye by these Presents, that I the said "William Pater on, for divers good Caufes, and Confiderations me 66 hereunto moving, do for me, my Heirs, Excecutors, Admini-" strators and Assigns, Remise, Release, Remit, Discharge, " and Quit Claim unto the faid Company, and all and every the "Subscribers thereunto, their Heirs, Executors, and Administra-"tors, and Affignes, all and every part of the faid two per Cent. In Reply to this, the original Release, whereof the above is only a Copy, as in the Journals of the House of Commons, of the 21st fanuary, 1695. never was, or ought to be used as a Pretext against, but rather as a special Corroboration of the Petitioner's Claim, since it was only given in Trust on the following occasion,

Soon after compleating the Subscriptions in London the Parliament met, about which time the Clamours were so great against this Company and the Proceedings thereof, that Ruin was threatned to those who were concern'd; and among other Infinuations, it was confidently pretended, That the two per Cent. Premium was already receiv'd, and divided amongst several great Men, who procur'd the Act of Parliament, for constituting the Company.

Tho' those concern'd well knew that all this was utterly Fasse and Groundless, yet considering the impending Danger, they intreated, and prevail'd with the Petitioner, on the 29th of November 1695, being the very last Day of their meeting in London, to execute this Release, with Promise, it should be only in Trust, and never us'd against him, as in effect it never hath, whatever use some Persons have, or may pretend to make of Copies thereof.

During this Dependance of the Company's Affairs in Parliament, the Petitioner, upon Promise not only of the Consideration stipulated, but likewise of a suitable Recompence for all his surther Losses, and Sufferings had, or to be had, on that Company's Account, was prevail'd upon to leave his Effects, and Business in London, then very Considerable, and to go Scotland, and there wholly to engage in that Service, wherein he hath ever since continued to his insufferable Loss, and Prejudice; for all which which the Petitioner hath never yet had Satisfaction, which is the ground of his present Claim, comprised in the following Estimate, viz.

For the Proof whereof, the Petitioner particularly refers to the abovementioned Extracts out of the Company's Books, with the Examinations taken in Parliament at the time, when he with feveral of his Friends had the Misfortune to be Impeach'd on that Company's Accompt, as likewife to the Testimony of several Witnesses of undoubted Reputation still living.

From the Commencement of the Union, being now near five Years, the Petitioner hath constantly endeavoured to obtain his Right but without Effect, which obliges him now to apply to the Parliament for Relief.

To the Honourable the

Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses,

Commissioners for Shires and Burroughs,

In PARLIAMENT Assembled,

The Humble Petition of WILLIAM PATERSON, Esq;

SHEWETH,

HAT your Petitioner hath been at great Expence and Pains, and fustained very confiderable Losses on Account, and at the Instance of the African and Indian Company of Scotland.

That by the 15th Article of the Treaty of UNION, it was stipulated and agreed, that next after the necessary Allowance, for the Losses private Persons might sustain by reducing the Coin of Scotland, to the Standard and Value of that of England, the Capital Stock and Fund of the said Company, together with Interest after the Rate of sper Cent. per Annum, from the respective Times of Payment thereof, should be paid out of the Equivalent; and that if the Stock and Interest should not be paid in 12 Months after the Commencement of the Union, the Company might, from thence forward, trade, or give License to trade, until the said whole Capital Stock and Interest should be paid.

N. B. By the Articles of Union, it is not left or referr'd to the Parliament of either Kingdom, nor even to the Parliament of Greatment of Greatment of Greatpany, until the whole Sums thereby made payable to them, be discharg'd.

That altho' a considerable Part of your Petitioner's Demands on the said Company were not adjusted, as consisting partly in a Share of the Profits of their Stock, and of subsequent Expences and Losses since their first Contracts and Agreements with him; yet the great Inclination your Petitioner had to use his utmost Endeavours for promoting the UNION, and his entire Considence in the publick Faith and Justice, in Case of the Success thereof, induced him to prefer the Foot of the general Interest, to any particular Reservations or Terms for himself, at the Time of the Treaty.

But your Petitioner, to his great Detriment, hath been hitherto obstructed and postponed in his Claim, by, or at least under Pretence of certain Proceedings of the late Parliament of Scotland, since the Conclusion of the said Treaty; whereby, among other things, the N. B. By the Articles of Union, it is not left or referr'd to the Parliament of either Kingdom, to adjust, much lefs to limit or restrict, the Sums thereby made payable to the Parties concern'd in the Payment of the said Interest is restricted to the first Day of May last past; and the whole Sum of Principal and Interest to be paid to the Creditors and Proprietors of the Joint-Stock of the said Company, limited to 232884 l. 5 s. 2 d. only, and by which the Directors of the said Company, or any five of them, with their Secretary, are ordered to state and deliver in, to the Lord-Clerk, Register, the whole Accompts of the Company, (but so as not to exceed the said Sum) before the first Day of May last upon severe Penalties.

African and Indian Company; the doubtlefs, it is to the Parliament of Great Britain, as the last Resort:

That upon passing the Commission of Equivalent, and transmitting the 308085 l. 10 s. to Edinburgh, your Petitioner repaired thither, to receive his Claim, not doubting but the Directors of the said Company either had, or at least, upon his Application, would readily state and certify such part of your Petitioner's Accompt and Claim, as was liquidated and clear, and sully and fairly represent the Parts thereof, which are not yet adjusted, to her Majesty's Commissioners for the Equivalent, in order to its being settled and determin'd.

But to your Petitioner's great Surprize and Disappointment, he there found, that without any previous Notice, or reasonable Allowance of time for Parties absent, or under other Incapacities to bring in their Claims, some few of the said Directors had, in the Absence of your Petitioner, and without including his Accompt and Claim, not only pretended to make up and certify the Company's general Accompts, but absolutely to limit and determine the same.

That after having, for feveral Weeks together, inftantly requir'd the faid Directors to do him this Justice, he at last understood that her Majesty's Commissioners for the Equivalent, without giving any Time or Notice for your Petitioner or others to bring in their Claims or Demands on the said Company, had already begun to pay back and distribute the said Joint-Stock to the respective Directors, and other Proprietors thereof.

That your Petitioner did thereupon make his Application to the Commissioners of the Equivalent for Relief, but the said Commissioners were pleas'd to wave the determining and satisfying of this his Claim.

Those Obstructions and Hardships being such as indispensibly oblige your Petitioner to have immediate Recourse to the Compassion and Justice of this Honourable House;

Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays this Honourable House to take this his Case and Claim into Consideration, and to give him such Relief, as you in your great Wisdom shall judge sit.

And your Petitioner shall ever pray, &c.

Upon

Upon the PETITION of William Paterson, Esq;

THE Committee having taken into Confideration the Matters contained in the said Petition,

It appeared, that the Petitioner hath been at very great Expence and Pains, and sustained very considerable Losses on Account, and at the Instance of the African and Indian Company of Scotland.

That on the 13th of August, 1707, the Petitioner delivered a Representation to the Directors of the African and Indian Company of Scotland, to the Effect following:

That by the Conditions of the Subscriptions of 300000 l. taken at London, the 6th of November, 1695. as part of the then intended Sum of 600000 l. Sterling, for the Capital Stock of that Company, It was agreed, that in regard the Petitioner had been at great Pains and Expence in making confiderable Discoveries of Trade, and Improvements in and to both Indies; and likewise in procuring needful Powers and Privileges for a Company of Commerce from several Sovereign Princes and States, That therefore the Petitioner should have 2 per Cent. of the Mony to be subscribed into the said Capital Fund, as also 3 per Cent. of the Produce of the said Fund for twenty one Years, but redeemable for 2 per Cent. more of the said Fund at any time in five Years.

That the said Subscription, by reason of the great Opposition it met with, being broken and relinquished, the Petitioner was nevertheless, at the earnest Sollicitations and Request of those principally concerned in Scotland, prevailed upon to take a Journey from London into Scotland for the Company's Service.

That upon the 6th of October, 1696. the Court of Directors of the said Company taking the Petitioner's Case into Consideration, came to this following Resolution, viz.

This Court confidering the great Expence that Mr. William Paterson, one of the Directors of the said Company, hath been at for several Years past, in making valuable Discoveries of Commerce to both Indies, and he having delivered in several curious Manuscript-Books, Maps, Journals, and other Papers of Commerce relating thereto, hence-henceforth to be appropriated to the Company's Use, and having further evidenced his Affection to his Native Country, and this Company, by relinquishing England, and any profitable Establishment he had, or may at present have in that Kingdom, to his evident Damage and Loss: Therefore the said Court of Directors do hereby allow the said William Paterson to transfer and dispose of the Sum of 1,000 l. Sterling, of the Subscriptions now vested in this Court of Directors (that is to fay) of the 85000 l. of such English Subscriptions as are not yet disposed of by this Court, and to take and apply to his own proper Use the first Quarter-part thereof, extending to the Sum of 3750 l. Sterling, together also with the like further Sum of 3750 l. Sterling, being the first Quarter-part of the Sum subscribed by him the said William Paterson, James Smyth, Daniel. Lodge, James Campbel, and Joseph Cohen d'Azevedo, Merchants in London, and amounting in the whole to the Sum of 7500 ! Sterling.

And further for his Merit in contriving the principal Defigns, and Constancy in promoting the Service of this Company, the said Court of Directors have resolved to take into Consideration what sutable Gratifications they will appoint out of the subsequent Profits of their Trade, and proportionate the same to the Success thereof.

That altho' the said Sum of 7500 l. was much less than the Petitioner had Reason to expect, as being considerably below what he had expended in the Designs, which contributed to the forming of the Company; yet in Considence that the Directors would in their subsequent Resolutions effectually supply what was wanting in this, as well in a reasonable Share of the Profits of the Capital Stock, as by a competent Salery or yearly allowance for the time he should think sit to continue in the Company's Service: He, the said Petitioner, at the Request, and by Order of the Court of Directors, undertook a Voyage to Holland and Hambugh, upon the Company's Business, and hath since that time through all manner of Difficulties attended their Service.

It appeared to the Committee, that upon passing the Commission of Equivalent, the Petitioner repaired to Scotland to receive his Claim. But some few of the said Directors had in the Absence of the Petitioner, and without including his Accompt and Claim, made up and certified the Company's general Accompt.

That

That after having for several Weeks instantly required the Directors of the said Company to certifie his Claim, he at last found, that the Commissioners of the Equivalent had begun to pay back and distribute the said Joint-Stock to the respective Directors and other Proprietors thereof.

It likewise appeared, that the Petitioner did make his Application to the Commissioners of the Equivalent for Relief, but the said Commissioners were pleased to wave the determining and satisfying his Claim.

That upon the ist of September, 1707. the Petitioner delivered in to the Commissioners for the Equivalent, a Representation of his Case, setting forth his Claim and his Services, whereupon the said-Commissioners made the following Order.

EDINBURGH, 4 September, 1707.

"A Paper being presented to the Board by William Paterson, Esq; the same was read, and the Board were of Opinion, that Mr. Rod. Mackenzie, Secretary to the African Company, should lay before the Board an Abstract out of the Books, of what relates to the Affair therein represented; and recommended to John Jameson, to acquaint Mr. Mackensie

66 thereof.

That on the 3d of October, 1707. the Petitioner presented a second Representation to the Commissioners for the Equivalent, setting forth his Claim to the Effect following.

That the Petitioner was at first engaged in the Service of the said Company, upon their Promises of paying him 12000 l. in ready Money, and a Grant of 3 per Cent. of the Profits of their Stock for twenty one Years, or 12000 l. more.

But that as the Subscriptions at London were relinquished, by reason of the great Opposition against the Company, the Petitioner was upon the Promise of 30000 l. Sterling in Mony, or so much of Value in their Stock, induced to embark wholly with them, and risque all in their Service.

That nevertheless the Directors of the said Company, by their Act of the 6th of Odober, 1696. did only grant one Fourth Part thereof, or 7500 l. Sterling, as paid into the Stock, tho' with very onerous Clauses and Promises from some of the Concerned, that the Petitioner should have entire Satisfaction, pretending their Intention in this was only to engage him the more firmly in the Company's Interest, by a Dependance on them for a suitable Recompence.

That his Endeavours were imployed in England for the Company's Interest.

That for the Company's Service he imbarked for Darien, and underwent great Fatigues, when his Domestick Affairs were abandoned, to his unspeakable Detriment.

That fince his Return from that troublesome Voyage, he hath been concern'd for their Losses as anxiously as his own.

That seeing the said Company had not on their Part perform'd their Contracts, nor made Satisfaction for his Losses and Sufferings; and that the Effects, Debts, and Obligations of the said Company are, by Virtue of the Treaty of UNION, transferred to the Fund of the Equivalent.

After having intimated his formal Demand on the said Fund of the Equivalent, he left it to the Commissioners in the first Instance, and humbly submitted it to the wise Decision of her Majesty, who is competent Judge in the last Resort, Whether the first or second Compact, or the third Proposal, with an equitable Regard to his Services, Expences, Sufferings, and subsequent Losses and Damages, ought to be the Foundation and Measure of his Claim.

Upon which Representation the Commissioners for the Equivalent were pleas'd to make a Report in these Words:

EDINBURGH, October 3. 1707.

The Commission having consider'd the within written Representation, they remitted to such of their Number, as are to go to London, to recommend the said William Paterson in the most effectual Manner, that he may have a suitable Re-

" compence for his Losses within represented.

Upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to these Resolutions following, viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Petitioner, Mr. William Paterson, hath fully prov'd the Allegations contain'd in his Petition.

Refolved, That the Petitioner, Mr. William Paterson, ought to be satisfy'd, and paid all the several Sums owing to him by the African and Indian Company in Scotland, pursuant to the several Agreements made made between him and the faid Company, in the Terms of the Treaty of UNION, fo far as the fame shall be proved before the Commissioners that shall be appointed for stating the Publick Debts; and likewise, That such a Recompence be given to him as may be suitable to his Services, Expences, Losses and publick Cares.

The following Report from the Committee of the Honourable House of Commons this Session, sufficiently signifies what further Steps have been taken herein since those first Advances were made.

PETITION

WILLIAM PATERSON, Efq;

HE Committee having taken into Consideration the Matters of the said Petition, wherein the Petitioner alledges, That notwithstanding the special Direction of an Act of the first Parliament of Great Britain, Entituled, An Act for the further Directing the Payment of the Equivalent Mony, he hath not hitherto been able to obtain Satisfaction of his Claim on the African and Indian Company of Sotland out of the said Equivalent Mony; and that the Sums of ready Mony, out of which he ought to have been paid, are now for the most part otherwise disposed of

That by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, Entituled, Act for a Company Trading to Africa and the Indies, there was full Power given to the Commissioners named therein, or the major part of them, to Erect and Establish that Company, as appears in the Act.

That by the fifteenth Article of the Treaty of Union, It is agreed That in the first Place, out of the aforesaid Sum, what Consideration shall be found necessary to be had, for any Losses which private Persons may sustain by reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, may be made good:
In the next place, the Capital Stock, or Fund of the African and Indian Company of Scotland advanced, together with the Interest for the said Capital Stock after the rate of five per Cent. per Ann. from the respective times of the Payment thereof, shall be Paid; upon Payment of which Capital-Stock and Interest, it is agreed,

That the said Company be dissolved, and cease; and also that from the time of passing the Act of Parliament in England for raising the said Sum of 3980871. 10s. the said Company shall neither Trade, nor

Grant Licence to Trade; providing, that if the faid Stock, and Interest, shall not be Paid in twelve Months after the commence-e ment of the Union, that then the faid Company may from thenceforward Trade, or give Licence to Trade, until the faid whole Ca-spital-Stock, and Interest shall be Paid.

That after passing the Treaty of Union by the Parliament of both Kingdoms, the Company gave in a State of their Demand, amounting to 260000 l. but that they have been fince abridg'd of their Quota about 30000 l.

That by the faid Act of Parliament for further directing the Payment of the Equivalent Mony, It is Enacted, in the following words, viz.

And whereas it appears that the Accounts of the Stock advanced. and Debts due by the African and Indian Company of Scotland have been made up without regard to the Claim of William Paterson, Esq; for his Expences, Pains, and Losses, on Account and at the Instance of the said Company, Be it Enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, that no Omission or Neglect of the Directors of the said Company, or of others concerned in Stating, Adjusting, or Certifying the Claims or Demands upon the Equivalent, shall prejudice the Right, Interest, Claim or Demand of the said William Paterson, in and upon the faid Company, but that the feveral Sums due to him by the faid Company shall be certified, and thereupon fully satisfied and paid in the Terms of the Treaty of Union, as the same shall be proved before the aforesaid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

· And in regard that fince the making of the first Contracts and Agreements, the faid William Pater fon hath been at further Exs pences, and sustained other Losses and Damages, for and on account of the said Company; Be it therefore further Enacted, that the faid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, shall, and are hereby required to take an account of those his Expences and Losses, and likewise of his good Services, and publick Cares, and make a full and fair Representation thereof to her Mas jesty.

And to the end the more full and free Enquiries may be made, and Information had of the Premisses, the said Judges of the Court of

• Exchequer in Scotland shall, and may from time to time direct their commission or Commissions, to any Commissioner or Commissioners within this Kingdom of Great Britain, or Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, for taking the requisite Examinations, or Informations to the purposes aforesaid, and for reporting the same to the faid Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

That pursuant to an Order of this Committee of the 7th of March, the Remembrancer of this Court of Exchequer in Scotland, did lay before them a Certificate, or Account of the Proceedings of the said Judges on the Petitioner's Claim, which is hereunto annexed.

That by the several Extracts, Papers, and Accounts laid before the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and since deliver'd to the Committee, which were Read, and Proved, and are hereunto annex'd, being Number'd from 3 to 7, and likewise by the Evidence of Mr. Walter Stuart, Mr. James Campbel, and Mr. Roderick Mackenzie, who were all examined by the said Committee, it appears.

That Principally by the Petitioner's Countenance and Influence, the Sum of 300000 l. was first, in the beginning of November 1695, subscribed to the Capital Stock of the African and Indian Company of Scotland at London, and the Sum of 300000 l. more was soon after subscribed in Scotland, and one fourth Part of the said several Sums, (at the time of Subscription) actually Paid to the Company's Order and Use, on certain Conditions and Limitations, and particularly that the Petitioner should have two per Cent. Premium, out of the sirst Payment of the Sums to be subscribed.

That the Sums subscribed in London, and those in Scotland, were always understood and reputed to be Parts of the same Joint-Stock, and subject to the same Rules and Conditions.

That the Petitioner was prevailed upon, at the Instance and Perfuasion of the said Company, to leave his Effects and Business in London (then very Considerable) to go into Scotland, where, by his Countenance and Insluence, he likewise very much promoted and supported their Affairs.

That after this he was by the faid Company further prevailed upon to go to Holland and Hamburgh, to promote the Transferring of such English Subscriptions, as were relinquished.

That

That the Petitioner was still further prevailed upon to imbark in the said Company's Expedition to Darien, where, by his Conduct and Credit, he much contributed to the Support of that Colony whilst it subsisted.

That at his Return he gave a Particular Journal or Report of his Negotiations or Transactions there.

That the Petitioner hath often express'd his Concern for the Losses and Misfortunes of the said Company, and Inclination to do his utmost towards the having of them Repaired.

That by the Extract of the Petitioner's Account Current with the Company, upon Oath laid before the said Barons of the Court of Exchequer, by James Dunlop and John Symmer the late Company's Accomptants, it doth not appear that the Petitioner hath received the said two per Cent. premium, or had Satisfaction of the said Company for his subsequent Losses and Expences, only that the Sum of 435 l. 15 s. 13d. Remains in his Hands.

And by the Extracts taken out of the Company's Register Books, it appears, that from the beforementioned Premium of two per Cent. on the said Subscription of 600000 l. in the Joint-Stock of the said Company, the Sum of 12000 Principal Mony is due to the Petitioner, the Interest whereof at five per Cent. per Annum, from the 6th of November 1695, the time of the Company's Contract with him, to the Fifth of November last being sisten Years, comes to 9000 l. more, in all amounting to the Sum of 21000 l. from which deducting the abovesaid Sum of 435 l. 155. 13d. with the Interest thereof for nine Years, there Remains still due to the Petitioner a Balance of 20368 l. 3s.

That it appeared to the Committee, that the Books, Records, and Registers, of the said African and Indian Company, or Authentick Copies or Extracts of the same, were declared to be good and sufficient Evidence in all Courts of Judicature, or elsewhere, by which and no other Certificates, the several Creditors have received their respective Claims.

The Petitioner produced to the Committe a Report, and Extracts taken out of the Register Books of the African and Indian Company in Scotland, upon Oath before the Judges of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, signed by Baron Scrope; which were Read, and are hereunto annexed, Marked (A)

The Petitioner likewise produced the said Report and Extract out of the Books of Accompts of the faid Company, fworn to, by James Dunlop and John Symmer, Accomptants to the said late Company, and figned by Baron Maitland, both whose Hands were proved to the Committee by Mr. Mercer and Mr. Mackenzie, also read and are hereunto annexed, Marked (B)

Also the Petitioner produced an Extract of the Interrogatories and Depositions of Mr. Roderick Mackenzie, which were likewise Read, and are hereunto annexed, Marked (C)

And also several Papers relating to Mr. Paterson's Claim, being Extracts of the Books of the Company and Authentick Copies, Marked

And likewise the Petitioner delivered to the Committee an Account (D) Currant between him and the faid Company, which is also hereto

annex'd, Marked (E)

A Member of the House gave in a Paper to the Committee, Entituled, Mr. Paterson's Claim upon the Equivalent of Scotland Examined and Answered, but is not figned nor dated.

The Petitioner gave in also a Paper in Reply to the said Paper, figned by him, and bears date the 11th of April, both which are hereunto annexed.

Order of the Committee of the 7th of March.

N Obedience to the Order of the Honourable Committee of Parliament, to whom the Petition of William Paterson, Esq; is referred, I do hereby humbly certifie, that the said Mr. Paterson, in the Months of June, July and August 1708, gave in several Petitions to the Barons of this Honourable Court, setting forth the Grounds and Substance of his Demands, Copies of all which Petitions are hereunto annexed.

And Mr. Paterson, representing at the same time, That it was necessary before the hearing of his Claims that Mr. Roderick Mackenzie, Secretary to the late African and Indian Company, should lay before their Lordships Extracts of whatever was inserted in the said Company's Company's Books relating thereto, and that James Dunlop and Fohn Symmer, late Accomptants to the faid Company, should likewise lay before them a State of his Accompt of Debt and Credit, as contained in the Cash Books of the said Company; their Lordships, by their Orders of the 18th of June and 21st of July, in the said Year 1708, did appoint the faid Messieurs Mackenzie, Dunlop, and Symmer, to lay fuch Extracts and Accompts before them; which they having accordingly done, their Lordships upon the further Application of the said Mr. Paterson, proceeded to the enquiring into, and examining the said Affair; and after hearing the said Mr. Paterson by himself and Council several times, as likewise some of the Directors of the said late African and Indian Company, and Consideration had of all Papers and Accompts laid before them relating thereto, their Lordships in Candlemass Term following declared their Opinion to be, that they could not report and certifie any Sum certain to be due to the faid Mr. Paterson, according to the Allegations and Prayers of his said Petitions, but offered to make a Representation of the Merits of his Services, according to the Proofs which he should make thereof before them, which he declining to go into, nothing further was done therein.

But Mr. Paterson some short time after by his Agent desiring a fight of fuch Extracts, Papers, and Accompts as were produced and laid before the Court, in Relation to the faid Affair, the Reports of the faid Mackenzie, Dunlop, and Symmer, and all other Papers relating thereto, were delivered to Mr. George Drummond, his Agent, which he never thought fit to Return, but are now (as I am informed) lying before this Honourable Committee; and in Martinmas Term last, the faid Mr. Pater son exhibited a Bill in this Court against the Commissioners of the Equivalent, her Majesty's Advocate, and the Lord Clerk Register, a true Copy whereof is hereunto subjoined, to which her Majesty's Advocate has put in an Answer, a Copy whereof is hereunto likewise annexed; whereupon Mr. Paterson by his Council the 20th of November last did move this Court, that in regard the aforefaid Mr. Mackenzie was a very Material Witness for him, and defigned shortly to go beyond Sea, that therefore he might have leave to Examine him upon Interrogatories in Relation to the faid matter, tho' all Parties concerned had not Answered; which upon the Confent ofher Majesty's Advocate was ordered accordingly, as appears by the annexed Copy of the faid Order, pursuant to which, as I am informed, the faid Mr. Mackenzie was Examined by the Examiner of this Court, and Mr. Pater son has lately by order got a Copy thereof. This is the only Account I am capable of laying before this Honourable Committee, in Relation to the Steps taken with Respect to Mr. Paterson's Claims, from any Paper, or Records in this Court, which is with all due Submission subscribed by will be found found to the continue of John Tarver.

Rememb.

Whatever seems to be otherwise hinted in the above Report, yet certainly there never was any Judicial hearing of the Directors, nor did they, or any of them, ever by Word or Writing, produce any Proofs against the Petitioner's Claim, nor was there ever any Entry made of the Proceedings, by which the Petitioner might have had Recourse to the House of Lords for Relief.
